I believe the Rear Gunner Mike Sawri (RCAF) was killed by the cannon fire of the Ju.88 which got us. The pilot has told me since that no words came over the intercom from Mike and that the controls of aircraft were damaged. Paul Crowley (MUG) and H.A.Murphy (W/Op) preceded me to rear door of our Lanc. The aircraft made 2 strong lurches, the firstbthrowing the three of us away from the door, the second hurling me through it. As the other two were on either side of me and I was the only one fair in front of the opening and consider they were not so favoured as myself and remained trapped in the wildly gyrateing craft.

Crew: As far as is known:-

5 unknowns

Whilst carrying out investigations in the area of Kreis CELLE, I proceeded to WINSEN (L.53X.47560) where it was reported that five men, killed as the result of the crash of a four-engined a/c on the night of 12/13th. Aug. 44, were buried in the local cemetery.

Aircraft: The following information was obtained from Herr MOSMANN, ex-Fire Brigade Chief, Herr HELMS, ex-Fireman and his son HANS HELMS all from the Gemeinde of WINSEN:-

At approx. 2330 hrs. on the night of 12/13th Aug. 44, a four-engined a/c which was on fire was observed approaching from the North East and diving steeply from the clouds, the base of which was approx. 3000 feet.

It crashed about 1 km north east of Winsen and burned for approx. two hrs. Herr HELMS said that there seemed to be a lot of a/c flying above the clouds at the time, and from their direction of flight, he thought they had been bombing BERLIN.

For several days after this crash pilots from surrounding aerodromes, and flak battery commanders were arguing as to who had shot down this bomber.

Pieces of the a/c were scattered over an area approx. 1200 metres in diameter. The police roped off the area and the next day the Luftwaffe from Witzenbruch took away the wreckage.

Aircrew:

Five bodies were recovered from the vicinity of the a/c. Some were burnt, but one, which was found in the pilot's cockpit, about 150 metres from the point of impact was not burnt at all.

Identification discs and personal effects were put into five small bags, by a Nazi party member, who was said to have taken them to Nazi H.Q. in CELLE.

On 13th Aug. 44, the Luftwaffe from Witzenbruch put the bodies in five coffins and took them to Winsen village cem., where pastor BENSCH, the local vicar buried them.

No military or church rites were observed at the burial.

The graves were numbered 10, 11, 12, 14 and 15, and are situated in the north west corner of the cem., in the Allied grave plot.

The condition of the graves was said to be good until an American Unit exhumed the bodies on 4th April, 1946. Having identified the men as members of the R.A.F. they buried the coffins again, and were reported to have thrown the crosses marked:

UNKNOWN BRITISH FLYER, killed in action 12/13th August, 1944.

Two survivors were reported to have baled out of the a/c. One was captured at Miessendorf (L.53X4361) by the inhabitants and was brought to Winsen by Herr BRAUER, ex-police chief of Winsen, who reported in his police diary that the prisoner's name was "CONDOR". This airman was taken by a Luftwaffe Major to the aerodrome at Witzenbruch. The other survivor was rumoured to have been captured but no one knew where or how.

Dear Mr. Murphy,

You will already have received word that your son, Pilot Officer H.A. Murphy, has been reported missing from air operations. You will, I am sure, wish to know any details that are available. There are very few, I am afraid, and even these I must ask you to treat as confidential.

Your son took part in a raid on Brunswick on the night of 12th. Aug. 1944. Unfortunately, nothing further has been heard from him or from any member of his crew since they took off; This was your son's twenty seventh operation, and he was a very skilled crew member.

There is always the possibility that he may be a prisoner of war, in which case you will hear from him direct or through the Air Ministry, who will receive advice from the International Red Cross Society. I share your hopes that this may, in fact, be the case.

Your son's personal effects have been carefully collected and forwarded to the R.A.F. Central Depository, and in due course you will receive a further communication concerning these from the Administrator of Estates, Ottawa.

May I offer you my own deep sympathy and that of all members of the Squadron in your great anxiety. Your son had been with the "Ghost" Squadron a few months and he was a very popular member. His constant cheerfulness, willingness, and obvious ability had endeared him to us all and made him a most valuable member of the Squadron. We do miss him badly and all are hoping for better news of him soon.

Yours faithfully,
