M. Henry Dubois,
Dorion,
Vaudreuil, P.Q.

Monsieur,

C'est avec un profond regret que je dois confirmer le télégramme qui vous a été envoyé récemment pour vous faire savoir que votre fils, l'officier pilote Joseph-Edward-Lawrence Dubois, avait été tué en activité de service.

J'apprends, de la part de l'officier préposé au registre des morts, blessés et disparus du C.A.R.C., outre-mer, que votre fils a perdu la vie au cours d'opérations aériennes effectuées à deux heures vingt-trois minutes du matin, le 18 décembre 1944, près d'Alne Village, Yorkshire, en Angleterre. L'aéronef qu'il occupait, à titre de membre d'équipage, s'écrasa au sol peu après s'être envolé en mission d'attaque contre Duisburg, en Allemagne. Ses funérailles ont eu lieu à dix heures trente minutes du matin, le 21 décembre, au cimetière régional de la "Royal Air Force", Harrogate, Yorkshire, en Angleterre.

Soyez assuré que tous les nouveaux renseignements que nous recevrons vous seront communiqués sans retard.

Je comprends parfaitement le profond chagrin que cette nouvelle vous a causé. Aussi, je vous prie d'agréer l'expression de ma très vive sympathie. Puissent les mêmes sentiments qui ont incité votre fils à sacrifier sa vie, vous donner le courage d'accepter cette épreuve.

Votre tout dévoué,

J.A. Sully,
Vice-maréchal de l'Air,
Directeur du personnel au Conseil de l'Air.

(NUMBER) (RANK) (NAME)

30th December, 1944.

Dear Mr. Dubois,

Before you receive this letter you will have been informed by the Air Ministry of the Very sad loss of your son Pilot Officer Joseph Edward Lawrence Dubois.

I am writing to give you a few details and to express the deep regret and sympathy felt by all members of the Squadron and by myself.

The aircraft in which your son was the Wireless Operator had been detailed along with others to participated in a bombing mission on the morning of 18th December, 1944, but due to cause still unknown at the moment, his aircraft crashed at approximately two thirty a.m. near Alne, Yorkshire, and all members of the crew were killed.

Unfortunately it was not possible for Service Reasons to ascertain your wishes regarding the funeral in the time available, and I therefore arranged for his burial without referring to you. You will, I am sure, understand the necessity for this action and I sincerely trust that the arrangements we were able to make were what you would have wished.

Your son was buried in the R.A.F. Regional Cemetary, Harrogate, County of Yorkshire on the 21st December, 1944, with the other members of his crew. Members of the Squadron were in attendance and Full Military Honours were accorded. The coffin was covered with the Union Jack and carried by fellow Officers. The "Last Post" was sounded at the end of the service. Wreaths were provided through all members of the Squadron. You will find enclose a set of photographs taken at the funeral.

I would like to add that Larry was a very popular member of the Squadron. He is greatly missed by his comrades, and his loss is regretted by all. I wish to assure you how much we all honour the gallant sacrifice your son has made so far from his own country for the Cause of Humanity, and in the Service of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

His effects have been gathered together and sent to ghe Royal Air Force Central Depository, from where they will be forwarded to the Administrator of Estates, Ottawa, who will be writing to you in this regard in due course.

May I once again express the great sympathy which all of us feel with you in your sad bereavement.

Yours sincerely,

H.C. Ledoux.

(d) all my estate.

If more than one beneficiary, set out in clause 2 (d) what each is to receive, such as:

and my household goods and effects."
"my mother, Ethel Brown, 480 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont. $100.00"

(3) Failure to appoint an executor or an executrix can only result in additional expense in the settlement of the estate in question. You are, therefore, strongly urged to make such an appointment. No person who receives any benefits under the will should act as witness. It is preferable, though not essential, that the witnesses be persons not on Active Service.

(5) Any additions or alterations to this Will must be initialled by the Testator and both Witnesses.

GENERAL

The laws of all the provinces of Canada, except one, provide that marriage subsequent to the date of the will revokes that will. Therefore, an officer or airman, immediately upon his marriage, should make a new will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as set out in his will.

To be completed only by personnel who have previously executed a Will.
