Additional information or remarks :

On Tuesday September 11th, I proceeded to the Military Cemetery at OOSTERBEEK in order to ascertain whether or not the members of the Crew were buried there. The Cemetery is being used for the reinterment by 37 GRU, of Airmen and soldiers buried in the district. A soldier belonging to the Unit told me that if I awaited the return of Captain Long, his Commanding Officer, he might be able to throw light on the whereabouts of the graves. After waiting some time, Captain Long appeared; I showed him the list of names of the crew and he told me that in a few minutes the disinterred bodies of this Crew would be at the Cemetery, as he had just had them dug up at DRIEL (Map Ref. E.6876). I saw the bodies reburied. The graves are as follows:-

J.37545 F/O PAGET. Buried alone.
R.171492 SGT. O'SULLICAN Buried alone.
J. 37117 F/O. JACK)
R.172856 F/S. PINNER) Buried together.

Captain Long stated that there was another grave a little way away from the one mentioned in letter CAN/R.172856/P.4.Cas.Can.C.II. which contained remains, some of which were identified as being those of F/O. Paget. The bodies of this Crew were absolutely burnt and the remains were very small and Captain Long, on hearing from me that there were four in the Aircraft, decided to assume that F/S Pinner's remains were also in the grave found at DRIEL, especially as he was inclined to think that such was the case from the remains found. There were also 4 soldiers in the Aircraft who were recovered and buried.

The numbers of the graves will be forwarded later, when known.
