CITIZENSHIP (NATIONALITY) is defined in terms of the country to which the person owes allegiance. The term "Canadian" should be used as descriptive of a person who was born in Canada or who has rights of Citizenship in Canada, unless he or she has subsequently become the citizen of another country.

RACIAL ORIGIN is defined in terms of the people or race to which the person—traced through the father—belongs, whether English, Irish, Scottish, French, German, Russian, Ukrainian, etc. The terms "Canadian" or "American" should not be used for RACIAL ORIGIN, as they express CITIZENSHIP (NATIONALITY).

To Whom it may Concern;

Mr. Frank Elliott, the holder of this letter has been employed by us since 1935 during the time that we were operating our mine at Slocan City, B. C.

His attentiveness and sincerety has been above the average and his work has always been carried out in a very satisfactory manner. He is very resourceful and can soon adapt himself to any new task that is assigned to him.

He has been employed by us as a miner, Blacksmiths helper, Mechanic and when we started our mill he was put on as second mill operator. This job takes unusual ability but was handled by him very satisfactorily.

I will personally vouch for his honesty and would not hesitate to give him any position of trust or one that required unusual ability.

We will be glad to give further details to any who would care to write to us.

Very sincerely,

C R Thomas
