Dear Sir:

Jackson has no known grave but Cusson is buried in Sai Wan Military Cemetery, Hong Kong, plot 8, row B, grave 4. Both of these casualties were reported with the rank of Private but a careful check of records reveals that they should be listed as Corporals. Would you, therefore, be kind enough to ensure that when their permanent commemoration is carried out the higher ranks be shown.

Yours truly,

H.M. Jackson,

Albert Jackson.

January 27, 1943.

Administrator of Estates,
Department of National Defence,
Ottawa, Ont., Can.

Dear Sir:

We have been presented with a death claim on the life of Private Albert Jackson, serial number D106529, a member of the Canadian Army, who is said to have lost his life at Hong Kong. The date of birth of our insured was November 16, 1906.

In order to enable us to meet claim requirements and give prompt service to the beneficiary of our policy, we would appreciate being furnished a copy of any military will which may have been completed by this man upon entering the Armed Forces or during his term of service. If no such will is available, we would like to have a statement to that effect.

It is understood that the will which may be on file in your office may be the last will of our insured. We have found that we are usually able to complete the settlement of a claim with a copy of whatever will may be on file. If the last will has been received from overseas, we would like to have a copy of that will.

Yours truly,

Dear Mrs. Jackson: Re: D106529 Pte. Jackson, Albert
Headquarters "C" Force

The official lists of the Canadian prisoners of war at Hong Kong, furnished by the Japanese Government through the International Red Cross, have been coming in at intervals by cable during the past month. Some little time has now elapsed since the last list was received and it would appear likely that few, if any, more names will be reported.

The next-of-kin of all the known prisoners of war have now been officially advised, and I regret very much to see that the name of your husband of whom nothing has been heard since the fall of Hong Kong, is not among them. Every effort is being made to obtain definite information regarding those who are still missing and the International Red Cross has been asked to obtain all available particulars about them from the Japanese Government. You will be advised promptly as soon as there is anything to report.

I am sorry indeed that I cannot give you better news at this time, or offer any encouragement that might help to relieve your anxiety, but if there are any questions in your mind regarding which you would care to write to me, please do not hesitate to do so.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. E.M. Jackson,

Dear Mrs. Jackson:

The letters which were sent on the GRIPSHOLM from the prisoners of war at Hongkong have now been forwarded to the addressees by the Ottawa Post Office, who inform us that only 509 letters were received. Apparently each prisoner of war was only allowed to send one letter.

We went through a great many of these letters while they were being examined by the Censor and found they were very strictly censored by the Japanese Government. It would appear that the regulations regarding the form of letter and the restrictions as to the information contained in the letter were extremely severe. I therefore am of the opinion that a great many of the letters written by the prisoners may have been held up by the Japanese censor because they did not conform completely to the conditions imposed by the Japanese Government.

It is only natural that you might feel distrubed as to the fate of your husband, D106529, Pte. Jackson, Albert if you failed to receive a letter from him, but while of course I cannot assure you that he has survived the battle of Hongkong, I do believe that you have still reason to hope for his safety.

We are doing everything possible to hasten receipt of the official list which the Japanese Government promised us would be ready and forwarded before this, and the Department of National Defence has made arrangements to have the entire list cabled by the International Red Cross Delegate in Japan as soon as it can be secured from the Japanese Government. You can be assured that as soon as we receive this list you will be immediately notified by telegram.

Your patience and fortitude over these eight terrible months have been truly wonderful, and I am so very sorry that the mail has not brought you a more satisfactory letter than this one from me, but please do not yet give up the hope of receiving better news when the official lists arrive from Japan.

Very sincerely yours,

F. W. Clarke

Dear Mrs. Jackson: Re: D106529, Pte. Jackson, Albert
Headquarters, "C" Force

We are informed that the Japanese have compiled and are forwarding a list of all ranks of the Canadian "C" Force taken prisoner of war at Hongkong. Already there have been unexpected delays and we cannot make any reliable prediction as to when the list will come. On receipt of this list, the Officer in Charge of Records will immediately check the names against the nominal roll of each unit, and will send a wire to the next-of-kin of each soldier listed.

In cases where there is information as to a soldier being wounded or ill, the message from the Officer in Charge of Records will include this information.

It is with regret, however, that I must point out that approximately three hundred of the strength in "C" Force were not accounted for and consequently we must accept, subject always to some error in the preparation of the list, that names which do not appear on the list are those of soldiers who have been either killed in action or are missing.

Owing to conditions which prevailed at Hongkong immediately following the surrender, we do not believe that details of those killed in action, or missing, will be available for some time, but every effort will be made to secure as early as possible as much information as we can from their comrades who survived and are now prisoners of war.

As letters from prisoners of war to next-of-kin should be received before very long, I would appreciate, in the event you receive any information in your letters with reference to comrades who may be known to be killed or seriously wounded, if you would forward to me here, the name and all information you get from the letter, in order that I can inform the next-of-kin of those who are referred to, in as much detail as possible.

The past seven months have been trying ones for all of us who have loved ones at Hongkong, but I fear the next few weeks of suspense will prove the most trying of all, and I can only wish for you that the news, when it comes to you, will be good news.

Yours truly,

F.W. Clarke

Dear Mrs. Jackson:

Re: D-106529 Pte. Jackson, Albert
Headquarters Force "C"

I wrote you on April 15th last with reference to the possibility of a shipment to Canadian Prisoners of War at Hongkong, and suggested that you might send letters and one next-of-kin parcel to be forwarded on this ship.

I am now able to inform you that, under the auspices of the Canadian Red Cross Society, the ship was loaded, and sailed on the 18th of June, with approximately 150 tons of medical supplies, food, tobacco, and cigarettes, as well as letter mail. This information was given to the Canadian Press at the time the ship sailed.

Those of us who were directing this matter were greatly disappointed, as I know you will be, that the space available on the vessel was so limited that we were obliged to withhold all the next-of-kin parcels until a later shipment, in order to give priority to the more essential items of medicines and food. However, you will be glad to know that all letters addressed to Prisoners of War and received at Ottawa up to June 6th were forwarded on this ship.

We understand that the Japanese Government has made arrangements that letters from Canadian Prisoners of War at Hongkong may be forwarded to relatives in Canada on the return trip, and should reach Canada during the latter part of August.

We are now negotiating for a second voyage of the ship about the end of August, and hope to include in this shipment to Hongkong supplies of clothing and other comforts, in addition to medical supplies, food, and tobacco, as well as the next-of-kin parcels withheld at the Canadian Army Base Post Office, Ottawa, from the first shipment.

Until we have more definite information as to the space available in the August shipment, we suggest that no further next-of kin parcels be forwarded, as, while we anticipate more space will be available, you will realize it is most important that clothing and blankets should go forward on the August voyage of the ship.

An arrangement for the despatch of letter mail to and from Canadian Prisoners of War in Japanese hands is now being negotiated and I will write you again giving full particulars as to addressing letters, as soon as definite arrangements have been made.

You will be pleased to know that the news we have received recently from unofficial sources would indicate that the treatment of Prisoners of War has improved materially, and that the conditions as to food supply are much better.

Yours truly,

F. W. Clarke

Dear Mrs. Jackson, Re: D106529 Pte. JACKSON, Albert

We are now informed through the International Red Cross of the possibility that mail addressed to prisoners of war at HongKong may be forwarded within the next thirty days. It is possible that one next-of-kin parcel may also be permitted. Letters and parcels should be addressed as follows:

(Write name of soldier here.)
(Write name of regiment here.)
(Write soldier's number here.)
Taken Prisoner of War at HongKong,
Care Force "C",
General Post Office,
Ottawa, Ontario.

The above method of addressing must be carefully followed, and the letter can be mailed at your Post Office in the regular way.

All letters will be censored at Ottawa, so please refrain from writing any information useful to the enemy.

As letters on arrival in Japan will also be censored by the Japanese, it is suggested that no recriminations against the enemy be introduced, as it may result in the letters failing to reach those to whom they are addressed.

We would also point out that we have not as yet received a list of the dead and missing in the force at HongKong, with the exception of the nine names published in the newspapers some time ago.

We realize your great anxiety to communicate with your husband and to have word from him, and every effort is being made to arrange for a return mail from the prisoners of war at HongKong. You will be immediately advised if such an arrangement is completed.

We are also hoping to arrange for the despatch of food parcels through the Canadian Red Cross, as well as a full supply of medicine, clothing, cigarettes and tobacco, books, magazines, and educational reading matter, games, and other comforts. The only limit to the quantity of these items forwarded will be the space available in the ship.

While we believe there is now reason to expect mail and parcels to go forward we are compelled to point out that the present negotiations may fail to materialize.

As the officer specially charged in the Department of National Defence with the welfare and care of prisoners of war, I will be pleased at any time to answer any further inquiries you care to address to me care of this Department at Ottawa.

Yours truly,

F.W. Clarke

(F. W. Clarke) Lt.-Col.

January 14, 1942.

Since dictating the enclosed we have just received word that the Japanese have established a Prisoners of War Bureau and that they are ready to exchange information through the International Red Cross.

Immediately on receipt of this word, the Honourable Mr. Massey, Canadian High Commissioner in London, suggested to the International Red Cross people in London that their representative in Tokyo be requested to communicate direct with the International Red Cross representative in Canada.

It is earnestly hoped that this suggestion will be accepted. If it is, it will hasten considerably the receipt of anxiously awaited information.

ARMY Ottawa, Canada,

Mrs. Edna M. Jackson,

D-106529 Private Albert JACKSON

Dear Madam:

I recognize fully how anxious you are regarding the welfare of your husband, the soldier marginally noted, who proceeded to Hong Kong with the Canadian Force.

I regret no information other than what has been published is yet available regarding individual members of the Canadian Forces who participated in the action at Hong Kong. I may say that in the case of British personnel the War Office advise us that until other information is received they have adopted the procedure of posting the soldier as Missing. However, the Canadian Government is loath to adopt this course for the present until further efforts have been exhausted and every endeavour is being made through all possible channels to obtain definite information.

In this connection, our Government has the direct assistance of both the Argentine and the Swiss Governments, which respectively represent Canadian interests in Japan and in Occupied China. We also have the co-operation of the United Kingdom Government and the War Office, who are of course profoundly interested on behalf of both British and Canadian troops. We have assurance that all these authorities are putting forth every effort to hasten the receipt of information. We have also been in touch with the British Embassy in Washington, and efforts are being made as well by the International Red Cross.

You may rest assured that on receipt of any particulars respecting the welfare of your husband you will be advised immediately by telegram, as it is fully realized that suspense may cause even greater distress than a full knowledge of the facts, whatever they may be.

Yours truly,

With reference to your memorandum, one folio down, there would appear to be no reason why our recommendation dated 13th August 1941 should be altered. Therefore, in view of the need of skilled men as R.C.A.S.C. reinforcements and having regard to the approved policy of filling H.W.E. vacancies as far as possible with "R" recruits, it is suggested that D.O.C., M.D. 4 should be requested to effect the transfer of this man as a R.C.A.S.C. reinforcement.

With reference to H.Q.405-J-1737 (A.P.3) dated 16th August, 1941, relative to the marginally named soldier, it is reported by the Officer Commanding No. 4 Det. R.C.A.S.C. that Pte. Jackson is an expert on lubrication, greasing, etc., and looks after this work for all the vehicles (approximately 75) on charge to that Unit.

2. This is a highly important job and one which requires the services of a soldier trained in that particular type of work.

3. It is, therefore, recommended that the proposed transfer of Pte. Jackson to No. 4 Det. R.C.A.S.C. be favorably considered.

3. Since he was evidently taken on at the District Depot as a reinforcement, it would appear that he should have been sent to complete his basic training.

4. This, apparently, was not done, and, under the circumstances, I am directed to inform you that this soldier should be sent to a Basic Training Centre and then to the Service Corps Centre at Camp Borden, on completion of his basic training.

1. With reference to your memo. dated 6th August, it is observed on the Application for Transfer form that the marginally noted has been employed for 13 months in M. T. Garage, apparently since the date of his enlistment.

2. Since he was apparently taken on at district depot as a reinforcement, it would appear that he should have been sent to Camp Borden and not side-tracked in the M. T. Garage.

3. Our recommendation is that if he has not completed basic training, he should be sent to a basic training centre and then to the Service Corps Training Centre at Camp Borden on completion of his basic training or, if he has already completed basic training, he should be sent to Camp Borden with the next group proceeding from Basic Training Centres.
