marriage after the date of a Will revokes that Will. Therefore, a Soldier, immediately upon his marriage, should make a new Will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as shown in his Will.

7. The Will of a Soldier on Active Service is not invalid by reason that at the date it was made he was under the age of 21 years.

A Soldier who has made a Will before his enlistment, is recommended to inform his Commanding Officer where such Will has been deposited and the Commanding Officer shall upon receipt of such information forthwith complete the following certificate and despatch the same to the Officer i/c Records.

SHORT FORM OF WILL

(Write Will on next page)

If a Soldier on active service, or under orders for active service, wishes to make a short Will, he may do so on next page. It must be entirely in his own handwriting and must be signed by him and dated. The full names and addresses of the persons whom he desires to benefit, and the sum of money or the articles of property which he desires to leave to them, must be clearly stated. The mere entry of the name of an intended legatee on the next page without any mention of what the legatee is to receive is of no legal value.

The following is a specimen of a Will leaving all to one person:—

In the event of my death I give all my estate to my mother, Mrs. Mary Bull, 999 High Street, Toronto.

Dear Mrs. Yeo:

It was with deep regret that I learned of the death of your son, K2736 Private George William Yeo, who gave his life in the Service of his Country in the Western European Theatre of War on the 26th day of February, 1945.

From official information we have received, your son was killed in action against the enemy. You may be assured that any additional information received will be communicated to you without delay.

The Minister of National Defence and the Members of the Army Council have asked me to express to you and your family their sincere sympathy in your bereavement.

We pay tribute to the sacrifice he so bravely made.

Mrs. Pearl Yeo,
1041 Levis Street,
Three Rivers, Quebec.

Dear Madam:

Information has just been received from overseas that the remains of your son, K2736 Private George William Yeo, have been carefully exhumed from the original place of interment and reverently reburied in grave 13, row D, plot 25, of Nijmegen Canadian Military Cemetery, four miles South-East of Nijmegen, Holland. Marked map is enclosed. This is a recognized military burial ground and will receive care and maintenance in perpetuity.

The grave will have been marked with a temporary cross which will be replaced in due course by a permanent headstone suitably inscribed. While it cannot now be stated when this work of permanent commemoration will begin, before any action is taken you will be communicated with and an opportunity will be given you to submit a short personal inscription of your own choice for engraving on the headstone. Therefore, if you should change your address would you be good enough to inform the undersigned.

Yours faithfully,

for C.L. Laurin, Colonel,
Director of Records,
for Adjutant-General.
