Sir

P. Williams B
6577#

The marginally named man can do all exercises in gym. He requires driving to do anything. Physically I can find nothing wrong with him and I am convinced his mental condition is assumed for the purpose of staying in hospital. I would recommend that he be sent to some institution where Physical Drill is strenuous.

and compulsory. (eg. The Glass House (Aldershot)) I have taken this matter up with his M.O. Capt M^r Lead: and he agrees with me. He is a great nuisance in the Gym. as we have had to give him special hours when there are no other patients in the Gym on account of the effect this compulsory treatment has on the other patients.

I am Sir
Your obedient Servant

Add ~~Gunn~~ - Swedish Foot Surgeon Report again 17/1/17 -

15-1-17

Complains of pain in back, sleeps well purely psych-functive. In my opinion all his symptoms are purely a false impression. I asked him this morning what he had for breakfast. He said he had no breakfast, but when pressed he admitted by degrees he admitted he had tea bread & butter at 10-6

Now he feels much better. Travelling Board - I think it would be well if the M.O. accompanied him to board Colin Russell
