MEDICAL CASE SHEET

8/10/16

Ordnance Corporal, reported that the patient had two "fits" during the night. He apparently became unconscious, & before going off bed trembled & "said something about his heart"

Patient states that he had rheumatism 5 years ago, & that the doctor said his heart was affected. Now just before, & just after meals if he moves about, or at any time if he stoops, the patient states that his head becomes giddy & he feels as if he were going to faint. This has come on during the last two years, during which time he has been frequently become unconscious.
