Summary of Evidence

In the case of N^o 1484 P^o P. Evans & 4th Hays (Canadian) Regiment, charged with

Acting Sergeant Drunkenness

1st Evidence Acting Sergeant Drunkenness

On the evening of the 17th inst about 7³⁰ PM I was in the cantonment of the 4th Hays (Canadian) Regiment between the two buildings - a large number of officers standing about. I heard a voice speaking in a loud tone of voice, I recognized it as that of I went up and spoke to him, saw he was drunk, and told him to go quietly back to camp - He refused to do so, threw down his stick, and in a loud tone of voice said that he had come to this camp to fight, and he intended to fight anybody, or words to that effect.
Thinking I could do nothing with him - I went into the market square and proceeded to the military police. On returning with the the club envelope I found the prisoners still talking in a loud tone of voice in the midst of a conversation of officers and among in St. K. The Military Police took hold of them and escorted him to the Police Station - He was still shouting as they escorted him on the 1st night above - 10 PM he was called to the Blenheim - then that he saw one the prisoner O. M. Sgt. Brent Royal Canadian Regt in the yard - He was dressed and disarmed, shouting at the top of his voice and challenging a fight any of the officers stopping these - He was taken to the Police Station

J. Quibbler

Third
Evidence

Subj. Hoomb 213 Police Station I corroborate the above statement of to Corp. J. Quibbler M. P. Police

J. Hoomb

Prisoner

The prisoner on being asked whether

Pearson's Case has to say. Stated - He denies having challenged any officer to fight - and denies having given a false name never having been asked by the police for his name. Pearson also must have given it them.
