Sign. LITTLE, R.C.C.S., from British Columbia, died of dysentery in the spring of 1942. Died in Hospital shortly after being admitted. Second to die after CARTER. Buried in the Bowen Road Hosp. Cemetery.

4. Informed that Sgt. ROUTLEDGE, R.C.C.S. who was believed to be formerly from Vancouver and whose wife or family are possible in Calgary, Alta., was left behind in ~~escape by contacting~~ Sham Shui Po, Kowloon. He was believed to be planning an escape by contacting Chinese on the outside of the Camp. The Japs supposedly found out about this plotting as one day Sgt. ROUTLEDGE was taken from his barracks and his kit was left behind. He never came back and never was heard of or seen again. The general belief of other P.O.W. was that he was disposed of somehow.

5. Japanese guards at Camp #1 Sendai, Japan, slapped everyone around for no reason at all. They used their hands, sticks, butts of rifles, hose and in general anything they could lay their hands on. Some used to wrap wire around their hands to inflict cuts whey they hit the P.O.W.

Cpl. Brunet states that in Camp #1 Sendai, that a Jap by the name of SUZUKI, civilian supervisor of a mine near camp, and a Jap by the name of "STURUNO", a worker, participated in beating him for about twenty minutes with fists, feet and sticks, knocking him down about five times. Reason for beating was because Cpl. BRUNET asked to have his infected left hand (scar still noticable) looked at. Cpl. BRUNET has definite signs of a scar on his right leg as a result from this beating. Another Jap (name not known) participated in the beating with a stick, used to hit the Cpl's head. Two other Jap civilians (old) were witnesses to this beating but did not intervene for or against.

At Yokohama 3D Camp a Jap guard in charge of a working party named YAMANAKA, a veteran from China, one day tied a rope around Cpl. Brunet's neck and tied the ends of the rope to both hands high behind his back. Similarly three others (Stodgell was one man) were tied. And the four were then tied together and were made to stand at attention for one and a half hours. Any movement by anyone of them would automatically cause them to choke. Later they were marched through the streets to their camp through throngs of jeering Japs who were amused at the spectacle. This was done moreso for Humiliation than torture.

Cpl. BRUNET stated witnessed many other ill treatments, too numerous to mention and said he just wanted to mention the above two instances that ocurred to himself, one of brutality and the other humiliation.

Concerning my son who was taking Prisioner of War at Hong Kong.

In 1942 I wrote you about how I would go about addressing my son's letter's. And to which you replied at that time Giving me the correct way.

Lately I've been informed that I am not addressing them right as its been changed. It would please me very much if there has been any change that you would let me know!

Am I also right in assuming that only one letter a month is still the same rule. And that only his mother and wife are allowed the 24 word letter once a month. Or can anyone of his relatives write at least once a month. Also can there be boxes sent to the prisioners

Dear Mrs. Emo:

This will acknowledge your letter of February 6th, in connection with your son, the above-named prisoner of war.

With regard to your son's address, in July, 1944, a circular letter containing the most recent instructions with regard to correspondence to prisoners of war in the Far East was sent to all next of kin. In these instructions it was pointed out that 25 words may now be included in letters, and also there was a slight change in the method of address. For your convenience, the following is the correct way of addressing letters to your son:

Prisoner of war post
Service des prisonniers de guerre

Sgt. James Thomas Emo,
D-117580, Headquarters "C" Force, (C.A.)
Canadian Prisoner of War,
Tokyo Camp,
c/o Huryojohokyoku, Japan.

The regulations also state that relatives and friends, as well as next of kin, may write to a prisoner once a month,

In addition to regular letter mail it is now possible to write to Far Eastern prisoners of war via air mail. One of these air mail postcards is enclosed, additional cards may be obtained from your local post office.

With regard to your question about sending parcels to your son, I regret that facilities are still not available to send personal parcels to prisoners of war in Japanese hands.

Dear Mrs. Dawe:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of 7th February, in which you request information concerning your nephew, the above-named prisoner of war.

I regret to say that no information has been received concerning Sgt. Emo since July, 1943, at which time official information was received to the effect that he had been transferred to Tokyo Camp, Japan. I realize only too well the anxiety and worry caused by the lack of news from these prisoners of war in Japanese hands, but I want to assure you that the people who have the interests of these prisoners of war at heart are doing everything humanly possible for their welfare.

I can only suggest that you continue writing to your nephew once a month and hope that it won't be too long before he is reunited with his loved ones.

You were kind enough to tell me if I ever needed your help just too let you know. On March 1st I received news that my son Sgt. James T. Emo. died in a Japanese prision Camp in Tokyo of Double Pneumonia. Beleive me the shock very near finished me. And maybe you will find these questions ridiculous but. Ive just got too write and find out. If mostly too relieve my mind. And to help me beleive that he is gone. My son's wife has in her possesion a letter from some man who caught a radio message sent from one of the boys who was taken prisioner with my son. And in it he said that his friend Sgt James Emo. wishes too say hello to his wife and 2 kiddies, And this message was dated in May. And my son was supposed to have died in April. So I was wondering if there was any way in which I could find out if my son is really dead. Any definite proof or something. Many of my friends tell me not to bank too much on him being dead. Because the Japs are such devilish people. A little while ago I heard from some relatives of mine about a boy who was taken prisoner with my son in Hong Kong. But he escaped & has only made his way back to Montreal. And his family has heard nothing about him during those 3 yrs until he returned home! I'm been told so much not to beleive he is dead. I really dont know what to beleive. If I could find out for certain. Or could have more definite proof. It would help considerably. Until I hear from you I Remain Sincerely Mrs M. Enos

Re: D-117580 Sgt. James EMO (Deceased)

Dear Mrs. Emo:

Please let me express my deep sympathy with you in the loss of your son, the above-named soldier, who died whilst a prisoner of war in the hands of the Japanese. I can realize what a deep shock the receipt of this news must have given you and your family.

In your letter of 19th March, you state that your daughter-in-law received a radio message purporting to come from one of the prisoners in Tokyo Camp, in which your son's name was mentioned, and that due to the fact that the official date of your son's death was April, 1944, and the radio message was received in May, 1944, you have been wondering if the notification of your son's death is correct. Please let me point out that most of the radio messages received from these prisoners of war in the Far East are recordings, and these recordings are transmitted in some cases several months after the actual recording was made by the prisoner. Consequently, the broadcast message which your son's wife received was, in all probability, actually recorded by the prisoner two or three months prior to May, 1944.

Thank you for bringing this point to my attention, and I appreciate your natural desire to grasp any small shred of hope that your son might be still alive. However, I must point out with regret that the advice to the effect that your son died of pneumonia, was officially received through the International Red Cross.

Yours sincerely,

F. W. Clarke, Colonel,
Special Assistant to the Adjutant-General.
