Dear Sir.

I have recently received word from the Graves Commission in England that my son, Lieut. Peter Byrne Young, is buried in the British cemetary of Banneville-la-Campagne. He and his brother were both killed while serving with the Royal Scots during the first part of the invasion of France. My older son, Lieut. Richard Oliver Young, is in Bery-Sur-Mer, The Canadian Cemetary. Would it be possible to have them together in the Canadian cemetary?

Could you let me have this information as soon as possible, as I am planning a Memorial and want to get started on it this Spring.

Sincerely

Clara B. Young.

Lieutenant Peter B. YOUNG

Dear Mrs. Young:

In reply to your communication of the 15th instant respecting the burial place of your son, the marginally named, I am directed to inform you that the British Cemetery at Banneville-la-Campagne is a recognized military burial ground in France. It is unfortunate that your two sons were not reburied side by side but the policy in this regard is to concentrate graves into the nearest military cemetery appropriate to the area. As the removal of bodies is not permitted once permanent interment has taken place, I sincerely regret that it will not be possible to meet your wishes.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Mrs. Young:

Information has just been received from overseas that the remains of your son, Lieutenant Peter Byrne Young, have now been carefully exhumed from the original place of interment and reverently reburied in grave 23, row F, plot 12, Banneville-la-Campagne British Cemetery, Banneville-la-Campagne, France. Marked map is enclosed. This is a recognized military burial ground which will receive care and maintenance in perpetuity.

The grave has been marked with a temporary cross which will be replaced in due course by a permanent headstone suitably inscribed. While it cannot now be stated when this work of permanent commemoration will begin, before any action is taken you will be communicated with and an opportunity will be given you to submit a short personal inscription of your own choice for engraving on the headstone. Therefore, if you should change your address would you be good enough to inform the undersigned.

Yours faithfully,
