III. Educational Background

Completed grade 4 in a school in Quebec city between the ages of 7 and 13. His education was interrupted by a move from the farm into the city, and he left school when his father died in order to help support his mother.

IV. Occupational Background

Washed dishes in a restaurant for 2 years.
Was delivery boy for a store for 1 year.
Was painter in a machine shop - 2 ½ year.

V. Military Background

Enlisted in C.A.(A) in Sept. 1940 in the Infantry. Regimental No. was D-62650 in F.M.R. 65th Regt. Took basic and part of advanced at Valcartier Camp in Oct. Nov and Dec 40 and Jan 41. Was discharged for being underage 25 Jan 41. Enlisted 20 May 1944.

VI. Other Personal History and Appraisal

Was born at Sherbrooke, Quebec where mother still lives; father is deceased. There are 3 brothers and 2 sisters. The brothers work in a tailoring shop. One sister is married and one is at home.

Recruit is slender in build (5'7" tall and 140 lbs). and is single. Has been active in sport, especially in softball. Does little reading. Has no hobby. Leads a normal social life.

Bisson is a friendly, co-operative young labourer who has been in the Army and has taken training. His learning ability, according to the "M" score is about normal but his education has been very limited. His motivation to the service is satisfactory and he is looking forward to the adventures of active service. Seems that this young man will make a good Infantry soldier.

On the 31st December 1944 the regiment was stationed in Cuyk. The same night Pte Bisson and I were the guest of Mrs. Vonhonbergen who lives in our Company's area. We had a chat in the dining-room with Mrs Vonhonbergen and two other girls who were there. Pte Bisson was sitting immeditaly in front of me. At about one o'clock I decide that we should go back to our billets. I picked up my sten gun and put the mag on and then realizing that I was in the house took it off. Realizing that Pte Bisson was hurt I asked him where. He answered it was in the abdomen. I layed him on the floor placing a cushion under his head. I then dashed out of the house to get a shell-dressing and at the same time I sent L/Cpl Ouellet to the R.A.P. Whe I returned I placed the shell-dressing on the wound and washed his forehead with a wet towel. A few seconds later I noticed that Pte Bisson was dead. He was then evacuated to the R.A.P.

GENERAL

The laws of all but one of the Provinces of Canada provide that marriage subsequent to the date of the Will revokes that Will. Therefore, a soldier immediately upon his marriage must make a new Will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as set out in such new Will.

(XIX) SOLDIERS' WILLS

1. The particulars of the next-of-kin should always be carefully inserted in the Form on pages 4 and 5 of this Book, but the Soldier must understand that the entries made there have no legal effect in respect to the disposition of his estate in the event of his death and therefore do not relieve him from the necessity of making a Will. Unless a Soldier duly makes a Will, his estate is dealt with in the same manner as that of any other person who dies without leaving a Will, and not only may the relative or person desired or intended to be benefited receive little or no share of the estate but the distribution thereof is delayed until such of the next-of-kin as may be legally entitled can be located. Therefore, though his estate may consist of no assets other than the amount of pay and allowances at credit and the belongings he has on his person or in camp, it is urgent that he make a Will which, when completed, is left with his Commanding Officer for transmission to the Record Office for safe custody and in the event of his death is forwarded firstly, to the Estates Branch, Department of National Defence, Ottawa, for administration and distribution of the Service estate, and secondly, if other assets (including real estate) make it necessary, to the Executor named in the Will.

2. The Soldier's Will should preferably be made out on the Will Form,—M.F.M. 10 (English) or M.F.M. 10a (French)—provided for that purpose and on which are also printed a number of helpful instructions. These forms are obtained through the Commanding Officer of each Unit. A separate sheet of paper may be used but in such case the general form of the Will as shown in the Form M.F.M. 10 or 10a should be carefully followed. The Soldier will date the Will and at the bottom of it sign his name in the presence of two witnesses who at the same time in the presence of each other and of the Soldier will also sign their respective names. If the Soldier cannot write, he will make his mark in the place in the Will where his signature would ordinarily appear, and immediately above their signatures on the Will the witnesses will write a memorandum as follows:—"The above Will has been first duly and audibly read over to this Soldier when he appeared to understand it and made his mark hereto in our presence as aforesaid". In such cases, however, it is recommended that the guidance of the Soldier's immediate superior Officer be obtained.

3. The Short Form of Will (see pages 23 and 24 of this Book) may be used by a Soldier on Active Service but it must be entirely in his own handwriting. It is pointed out, however, that under the laws of some of the Provinces of Canada, such a Will is ineffective as to real estate. Therefore a Soldier having a Canadian domicile and owning real estate should use the Will Form M.F.M.10 or 10a and appoint therein a responsible executor. A Soldier having a domicile out of Canada should not use the Short Form on page 24 because it may not comply with the law of such domicile.

4. No person who receives any benefit under a Will can be a witness. If a person to whom a Soldier intends to give any part of his estate is a witness of the Will, he will not be allowed to receive the intended gift. He may, however, be appointed an executor.

5. When making a Will it is not desirable that alterations be made in it. If, however, alterations are made by the Soldier in his Will, he and the two witnesses must write their initials in the margin opposite the alterations. Any changes in the provisions of a previously made Will can always be made by a new document called a Codicil which should refer to the previously made Will and then state the changes desired, and be dated and signed and witnessed in the same manner as the Will itself.

6. A completely new Will can at any time be made and in such case it revokes, or cancels, any Will of earlier date. The laws of all the Provinces of Canada, except one, and of most English speaking countries provide that marriage after the date of a Will revokes that Will. Therefore, a Soldier, immediately upon his marriage, should make a new Will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as shown in his Will.

7. The Will of a Soldier on Active Service is not invalid by reason that at the date it was made he was under the age of 21 years.

A Soldier who has made a Will before his enlistment, is recommended to inform his Commanding Officer where such Will has been deposited and the Commanding Officer shall upon receipt of such information forthwith complete the following certificate and despatch the same to the Officer i/c Records.

Before embarkation, each Soldier is recommended, particularly those who have real estate, to consider the necessity for executing a document appointing some person or Trust Company his Attorney to manage or otherwise deal with real estate during his absence from Canada; also to review his affairs in the light of any changes that may have occurred since the date of his last Will and, if desirable, make a formal Will and inform his Commanding Officer thereof as indicated at the top of this page, or make a Will on M.F.M. 10 or M.F.M. 10a (French) and hand it duly completed to his Commanding Officer for transmission to the Record Officer concerned for safe custody.

The Officer receiving such Will shall complete the following certificate:—

In the event of my death I give all my estate to my mother, Mrs. Mary Bull, 999 High Street, Toronto.
