Mr. Percy Ackerley,

Dear Mr. Ackerley:

I wish to offer you my deepest sympathy on the loss of your son D 83041 Pte Ackerley, H. who has so gallantly given his life to his country in our fight for freedom.

Your son was with the battalion for a long time and had become a very efficient part of it. His record with this battalion is such as have made him an unforgettable part of it. He was a hard worker, had many friends and was well liked by all who had contact with him. To the very last he upheld the highest traditions of the Black Watch.

His numerous friends inthe company also wish to join you in the sorrow brought about by the death of one who has shown himself by his devotion to his country, an example to those of us who have been more fortunate.

Yours sincerely.

22 Nov. 44.

Dear Mr. Ackerley,

As the Chaplain to the Black Watch I have for some time been most anxious to write to you to express the deepest sympathy of the officers and men of the battalion along with my own, with you, in your recent sorrow. Although we have for some time known that your son was dead, it has not been possible for us to write as the news had not reached us through official channels, but only through verbal reports.

As you must by now know, he was wounded and taken prisoner in the attach the battalion made South of Caen on July 25th. The Germans placed him in hospital, but he died of his wounds, I understand, about three days later. I am afraid that is all the information I have, but I expect you may have heard from some of the other boys who were with him in that hospital.

The attack made by the battalion to the South of Caen was one of the decisive phases of the Normandy fighting; for the vigour and determination of the attach - which is the bravery and devotion of the men - held down the German reserves, leaving the way clear for the U.S. break-through on the flank, leading to the liberation of France and Belgium. This liberation was the work of the boys who fought and died at Caen.

And thus your son has added his name to those who in every age, have been willing to give all, rather than see all that is most sacred in our life and civilisation destroyed. Of them it has been written "Their name liveth for evermore."

It is hard indeed for us who remain to try to understand the meaning of it all, but we are strengthened by the fact that we know that God Himself has passed through the same experience in the person of His Son, who laid down His life for others. May God make us worthy of this sacrifice.

Yours very sincerely,

E. CECIL ROYLE Padre.

In reply to your letter dated 27th December 1944, I have received a communication from the Overseas Authorities which reads in part as follows:

"Recently a report was received from Lieutenant-Colonel R. Malone, that two Canadian soldiers, prisoners of war, died of wounds and, were buried in Thiais Cemetery, Paris. The regimental particulars of one of the soldiers was, D-83041 Private Herbert Ackerley."

In view of this information it would appear that the details given to you by Honourary Captain E.C. Royle, were authentic, and your son D-83041 Private Herbert Ackerley, died while in enemy hands. It is indeed regretted that the information which I gave to you in my letter dated 8th December 1944, was erroneous, but I know you will appreciate the fact that the above mentioned information was not then available.

Please be assured that should further details become available, I will forward them to you without delay.

Yours truly,

JDH/S
