INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Seul un médecin diplômé, autorisé à exercer sa profession au Canada et nommé par le ministre des Services nationaux de Guerre à la fonction de médecin examinateur conformément aux Règlements de 1940 sur les Services nationaux de Guerre (Recrues), aura qualité pour examiner le sujet et remplir la présente formule.
- 2. Le médecin examinateur est tenu d'examiner le sujet et de remplir la présente formule d'après les instructions relatives aux aptitudes physiques et à l'examen des recrues dont il recevra un exemplaire.
- 3. Dès qu'il aura rempli la présente formule, le médecin examinateur la postera ou la remettra lui-même au registraire de la division administrative du ministère des Services nationaux de Guerre où réside le sujet. L'adresse du registraire de division apparaît dans le coin supérieur de gauche de l'avis d'appel à l'examen médical.
- 4. Le ministère des Services nationaux de Guerre versera aux médecins examinateurs dûment nommés les honoraires fixés pour l'examen de chaque sujet. Aussi les médecins examinateurs s'abstiendront-ils de présenter toute note supplémentaire. La présente formule, dûment remplie, tiendra lieu et place de la note du médecin. Les honoraires seront versés aussitôt que possible après le dernier jour du mois.
- 5. Dès qu'il recevra la présente formule, dûment remplie, le registraire de la division administrative où réside le sujet estampillera la date où la formule lui sera parvenue, et il en tapera, ou en fera taper quatre copies identiques, chacune revêtue de la date à laquelle l'original de la formule a été reçu du médecin examinateur. Chaque copie ainsi dressée sera certifiée conforme par le registraire de division ou par une personne nommée par lui à cette fin.

Le registraire de division conservera la première copie. Il en annexera une copie à la formule originale reçue du médecin examinateur, et expédiera aussitôt ces deux documents au ministère des Services nationaux de Guerre, à Ottawa. Il expédiera la troisième copie au représentant du ministère de la Défense nationale, et la quatrième—si toutefois le sujet a été déclaré apte à l'instruction militaire et avisé de se rendre à un centre d'instruction militaire où le sujet aura reçu instruction de se rendre; autrement, le registraire de division conservera la quatrième copie dactylographiée.

6. Personne ne doit, sans autorisation, avoir en sa possession un exemplaire de la présente formule.

L'article 12 (3) des Règlements de 1940 sur les Services nationaux de Guerre (Recrues) se lit comme suit:

"Dans tous les cas où un doute peut s'élever sur le bien-fondé d'un certificat d'inaptitude à l'instruction militaire délivré par le médecin examinateur à l'égard d'un homme qu'il a examiné, le registraire de division pourra donner à l'intéressé un autre avis lui enjoignant de subir un autre examen; dans ce cas, l'homme se présentera aux temps et lieu indiqués par le registraire de division pour être examiné par trois médecins nommés par le Ministre. Ces trois médecins examinateurs examineront l'homme, et s'ils ne confirment pas le certificat donné par le médecin qui a procédé au premier examen, ils délivreront un autre certificat, qui sera définitif et probant."

L'article 36 des Règlements de 1940 sur les Services nationaux de Guerre (Recrues) se lit comme suit:

"Tout médecin examinateur qui, en fournissant des renseignements sous le régime des présents règlements, fait sciemment une déclaration inexacte ou signe un certificat inexact, sera coupable d'une infraction et passible, sur déclaration sommaire de culpabilité, d'un emprisonnement pour une période d'au plus six mois ou d'une amende d'au plus cent dollars, ou à la fois de l'emprisonnement et de l'amende."

Chief British Man of Confidence, Stalag IV A, HOHNSTEIN. Sachs-schwelz. Kommando da 366. Scharfenbergerstrasse, DRESDEN. N. 30.

March 18th. 1945.

Sgt. Smith.

re Beaudoin E. P/W. 14240

Resulting from the following incident the above man, a French-Canadian, was shot about 3 p.m. on Friday March 16th.

On Tuesday, March 13th., he was searched by Obergefreiter Hennig of this kommando and about 8 lbs. of raw meat were found in his possession. (It should be noted that most of the men in this kommando are engaged in demolition and clearance work in Dresden.) The matter was reported to Oberfeldwebel Make and he brought Beaudoin back to camp. Feldwebel Krebs, Kommando Fuhrer, called me in and gave me the above details, informing me further that the man was being sent to Kompanie for interrogation. This was done and later Beaudoin returned to camp prior to being sent into detention in the Nachrichen Kasern abutting on the Scharfenbergerstrasse. Also in detention at the same time and place were two other men, Lowe 252988 and Harrison 279343. No reason was given and no length of time for detention was fixed it being customary here for a man to be placed in detention pending further enquiries and the collection of additional evidence.

On Thursday March 15th. I sought for and obtained permission to visit the prisoner and just before setting out I received a note from Lowe asking for some reading material (which I took with me). The following was a condition of my visit; that I was not to speak to the prisoners in English. Accordingly I made out a few questions on a piece of paper to which the men were to reply "Yes" or "No" plus anything further that they could reply in German. The visit was otherwise quite satisfactory and the only complaint was in respect of exercise and this was attended to immediately.

On Friday March 16th. two men, Newhouse 14188 and French 90731, were held back from the usual working party and later sent out with a sentry to do a special job somewhere in the town. When they returned about midday they informed me that they had been digging a grave for a plunderer who varied, according to rumour there, from an English flying man to a Russian. I took these two men before Feldwebel Krebs and asked him if he knew anything concerning this grave. He had no information whatever on the subject. I followed this up by asking if he had any information from Kompanie concerning the three men in detention and he replied in the negative.

On Saturday March 17th. I requested to see the men again and permission was granted. In company with my interpreter John Deegan 253073 (Army No. 955108) I visited the men and saw Lowe and Harrison. (This time there was no restriction on talking.) They asked me what had become of Beaudoin, and on pleading ignorance they informed me that he had been removed from his cell about 2 p.m. the previous day. They said that they had been told by a sentry on duty that a sentry from our camp had taken him away. They also told me that Beaudoin had told them that on Tuesday an Unteroffizier at Kompanie had told him that he (Beaudoin) was going to be shot. (Beaudoin made no mention of this on my Thursday visit.) I questioned the corporal of the guard for the day and he produced his day-book and showed me an entry for the removal of Beaudoin on the authority of "Belag No. 1." No further information was available from the guardroom.

On return from the Kasern I saw the Unteroffizier von Dienst' at the camp (Jantsch) and asked if he had any information re the missing man. He told me he had none and referred me to Feldwebel Krebs who at that time was away at Kompanie. I asked him then for sight of the 'Wachebuch' for the previous day and was told it was not available. (It was certainly missing from its customary place on table.) At 6.45 p.m. I saw the Kommano Fuhrer on his return and asked him if he had any news of the missing man. He informed me, as coming officially from Kompanie, that Beaudoin had been shot at 3 p.m. on Friday March 16th. for plundering. Since then I have again visited Lowe and Harrison and assured myself of their safety and have fully reported the above details to Pte. Cramp who has promised to take up the matter with Kompanie this afternoon, and also to report on the continued detention of Lowe and Harrison and to endeavour to bring the case to a close. Those are all the facts of the case as it stands at present and I shall communicate further with you in the event of anything further developing. The man's full name is Elucippe Beaudoin of the Canadian Army and number E-48433 therein. His next of kin is cited as Etienne Beaudoin (Brother) St. Yvon, County Gaspe, Quebec Province, Canada. I shall refrain from writing the brother until you give me your opinion as to the advisability of doing so. Yours faithfully, (Signed) S.T. Gregory. Cpl.

Man of Confidence.

ARCHIVES (Syd. Thos Gregory P/W 259389 R.A.S.C. 111034 Corporal.) COPY OF PART OF THE ORIGINAL LETTER FROM SGT. SMITH IN REPLY TO THE ABOVE. To the British Man of Confidence, KGF-M-STAMMLAGER IVA Arb-Kdo. Scharfenbergerstrasse, HOHNSTEIN. 27-3-45 Dresden Rechts. Ref AE/0/3969 Dear Cpl. Gregory. Thank you for the excellent report on the shooting of Beaudoin P/W 14240, unfortunately there is nothing to be done in the matter other than reporting it to the Protecting Powers, as you know, the penalty for looting is international and spells death in any country. I would advise you to write a letter to the brother as you think fit, write it on ordinary notepaper and send it to me for forwarding via the Red Cross. etc. etc. Best wishes for now I am Yours sincerely (Signed) R. SMITH SGT. Following the receipt of this advice I wrote a letter in the N.B. manner prescribed to Etienne Beaudoin (the brother) on April 9th. On my return to England, considering it possible that this letter may never have reached him, I sent a copy of the letter with an explanatory note to Etienne Beaudoin and I assume it is on receipt of that that these enquiries are being made. On March 20th. I was warned by the Kommando Fuhrer to prepare myself for a visit to Kompanie the following day. I had no idea what the reason for this might be but it eventually turned out to be an official explanation on the shooting of Beaudoin resulting from the comprehensive report which I had furnished to Sgt. Smith.

COPY OF ENTRY IN OFFICIAL CAMP DIARY FOR MARCH 21ST.

"Proceeded to Company at 8 a.m. and received an official statement re shooting of Beaudoin. Was informed he had signed a statement admitting the act of plundering and that was the basis of the decision that he should be shot. That decision was made by some higher authority. It was not known where are his clothing and personal effects nor if he received the ministrations of a priest before he died. He was executed according to German Military Law which now disregards the waiting period of 3 months laid down in the Geneva Convention.

"Similarly there is no provision for defence, a prisoner having to put up the best defence possible. An admission of guilt on a capital charge is sufficient to warrant a death sentence. I could not learn definitely when the sentence was fixed or when Beaudoin was officially informed of the sentence. Neither could I obtain any guarantee that in any such future case would I know of the sentence beforehand."

N.B. This interview was with Hauptman Barthold through the medium of an official interpreter.

SUMMARY.

In this case there was no possible defence against the charge. Beaudoin was caught 'red-handed' with the meat in his possession and the sentence cannot be complained of as that was the sentence that was being meted out daily to German civilians caught plundering.

I respectfully submit however that the whole of the 'trial' and execution was carried out in a manner completely ignoring the relevant sections of the Geneva Convention dealing with the treatment of prisoner-criminals. The relevant sections I believe are 60-66 and the 3 months waiting period is definitely specified between sentence and execution.

ARCHIVES

It is in this particularly that the case against Hauptman Barthold lies if I may respectfully say so. I do not think that Hauptman Barthold was responsible for fixing the sentence but I have every reason to believe that he gave the order to carry it out thus flouting the safeguarding provisions of the Convention mentioned above. No-one attempted to implement these provisions and I respectfully submit that the duty for doing so devolved upon Hauptman Barthold. His whole attitude at the interview was one of complete indifference whether a prisoner lived or died.

N.B.

Hauptman Barthold, Kompanie Chef 5th. Landesschutze, 396
Battalion. Headquarters before evacuation in a well known Gasthaus in Radebeul, Dresden. Last known whereabouts in village of Rosenthal north of Bodenbach, Czechoslovakia (Sudetenland) some 40 to 45 kilometres south of Dresden.
Was with Kompanie in that location up to May 7th. 1945. As I had it in mind to lay a charge against this man for the matter of Beaudoin's death I carefully observed him and feel confident that, if necessary I can identify.

Yours respectfully,

Signed. S.T. Gregory
