NAVIGATION REMARKS:

This trainee's air navigation marks are as representative of his air work as is possible. However his ground navigation mark is somewhat lower than his average term mark. He seems to be well organized in the air and is considered to be a fairly capable navigator. Unfortunately this student was obliged to write a supplemental examination in Elements of Navigation but is is felt that as a result his knowledge of the subject is better.

GENERAL REMARKS.

He is extremely youthful in appearance and is the youngest man in the class. He is well liked by everyone around the station. The trainee has worked very hard on the course and does everything with great enthusiasm and takes an interest in station activities. Early in the course he was unsure of himself but has since gained more confidence.

Recommended for commissioning in the field.

Position in class 18/20.

GENERAL

The laws of all the provinces of Canada, except one, provide that marriage subsequent to the date of the will revokes that will. Therefore, an officer or airman, immediately upon his marriage, should make a new will in order that, in the event of his death, his estate may be distributed in accordance with his wishes as set out in his will.

To be completed only by personnel who have previously executed a Will.

STATEMENT OF LOCATION OF WILL

The term "Canadian" should be used as descriptive of a person who was born in Canada or who has rights of Citizenship in Canada, unless he or she has subsequently become the citizen of another country.

RACIAL ORIGIN is defined in terms of the people or race to which the person—traced through the father—belongs, whether English, Irish, Scottish, French, German, Russian, Ukrainian, etc. The terms "Canadian" or "American" should not be used for RACIAL ORIGIN, as they express CITIZENSHIP (NATIONALITY).

Dear Sir:

Your File H. Q. J-93595 FD 108
RE: Ross-Ross, Peter Donald P. O., Missing
No. J-9359, R. C. A. F.

AUG 20 1945

The following is quoted from a letter which we received from F/Sgt. Jack B. Gaylard of Plymouth, England:

"First I must apologize for not writing before, but have now decided to do so as I know you would like to know something of what happened. I was Peter's Rear-Gunner, and I will try and tell you what happened the night we were out, and did not return.

"We were on our way to the target, when we were hit by Flak. I called over the Intercomm to the Pilot, but received no reply. Then the plane went down on its nose, so I had to jump out quick. Since, I have learned what did happen, after we were hit. The Engineer told me that after the first hit we received, he tried to help the Pilot to pull the plane out of the dive, then he saw Peter had got out of his seat and was standing up as if trying to be of some assistance, then the Engineer's Parachute flew out the top of the plane, which was blown away and carried him out. The next day the Engineer was taken by the Germans to identify the bodies in the plane. I expect in your great grief it is a help to know Peter and the others, Jimmy, Pat and Vic, were properly buried at Munster. I was taken prisoner at Munster and was moved from camp to camp in Germany until finally liberated on April 29th at Morsburgh by the Americans.

"I know Air Ministry communications are very brief so if there is anything further you would like to know I should be very glad to help you. I can't tell you Mrs. Ross-Ross how much I miss these boys as we were such good comrades and my wife and myself were so looking forward to Peter spending some leave with us when our tour was finished. This seems all I can say now so I will close in the hope that you will be given the strength to bear up and be as brave as Peter was when danger was imminent."

We would very much appreciate it if you would send a copy of the booklet, describing the procedure to be followed when an airman is reported missing.

Yours very truly,

Donald Ross-Ross

P.S. I can hardly understand why we have been left in such an agony of suspense, when members of the crew were landed safely. Taken prisoners-of-war and released as early as April 24th. We have had no official word yet. We thought the whole crew was killed and not known buried. Please advise promptly. Thanks.

1. Three miniature wooden aircraft have been allocated as the property of the marginally named Officer, but we have, however, been advised by R.A.F. Central Depository that the next-of-kin of another of the crew, namely Flight Sergeant Binch, B.H. (R.A.F.) have referred explicitly to three model aircraft completed and ready to bring home.

2. Since there appears to be some doubt as to the true ownership of these models, it is wondered whether Pilot Officer Ross-Ross mentioned to his parents in an correspondence the fact that he had been making these models.

3. May we be advised, please as to any information that the next-of-kin may have in this regard.

"Dad has asked me to make a model Lancaster, copying, if possible, in every respect the markings and colouring of the plane which my brother flew.

Dear Mr. Ross-Ross:

We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 22nd June, 1945.

We have instructed Overseas Headquarters that the miniature wooden Aircraft referred to apparently belonged to your brother. We have also requested them to take particular care to see that the snap shots you refer to and the camera are located. We have instructed them to release his bicycle to one of the members of the crew, preferably one with children who can use it. We are sure this will be appreciated.

We should perhaps warn you that it is sometimes difficult to locate cameras as they are prohibited on all Stations unless registered with the Adjutant. It is also possible that your brother's bicycle, if located, will be sold by this time pursuant to Air Force procedure and the amount credited to his pay account.

Dear Major Fowler,

Referring to your visit to Altenberge a few months ago I would like to inform you that all English airforcemen buried here were dug out by the English Grave-Service on 14th and 15th May 1947 and were transferred. The airforeman P.D. Ross-Ross known to you was also removed at the same time. I am afraid I don't know where the corpses were brought to nor where they were buried again but I hope that you will have the possibility to get all information by your offices dealing with this matter.

Yours respectfully

I hope you got my letter dated May 6th, in which I enclosed two letters for you and also asked you for something fortifying in the food-line! Believe me - we need it too!

Dear Mr. Ross-Ross,

Apparently you have been misinformed with regard to the reporting of burial particulars received concerning your nephew, the late Pilot Officer P.D. Ross (CAN/J93595).

As far as our records are concerned, the deceased's father, Mr. D.R.D. Ross-Ross, 516 Sydney Street, Cornwall, Ontario, is still shown as the official next-of-kin, with your particulars as one of the additional persons to be informed. I have cabled Canada and R.C.A.F. Headquarters reply to the effect that the next-of-kin were informed on the 30th of August.

On the return of the survivors, statements were obtained at the Personnel Reception Centre, however, as there were thousands of released prisoners-of-war arriving within a short period of time, the problem of obtaining, recording and forwarding these statements took considerably longer than was anticipated.

In this particular case, it was not until the 28th of August, a few days after the receipt of the P.O.W.'s statements in this office, that it was decided to reclassify P/O Ross-Ross to "Killed" - a new postwar procedure.

On taking such action, it is our policy to inform the next-of-kin immediately, and all additional persons as soon as possible. Owing to pressure of work, however, our notifications to the additional persons in some cases are delayed.

Your letter dated 24th August was not received in this office until the 12th instant, with your follow-up letter of the 9th arriving two days later.

My reply has been delayed awaiting confirmation

Dear Sir.

In reply to your correspondence re the burials of my former crew. The information that I gave was based on the statements that my F. Engineer, F/Sgt P. Mahon gave me when we met at Munster, 5 days after crash. I was anxious to learn of my collegues, & this was the information he gave me, as he had identified the bodies. When I gave this statement on arrival in this country I explained that it was based on information from F/Engeneer.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 14th seeking further information about the members of my crew that were killed on the 3.3.45. I will try to give you all I can, but the names of the places I am not sure of. The target was Ladbergen, and if I could see a good map of the district I could find the village where I was held, and where the bodies of my crew were taken. The village was a mile or so East of the target, it was built in a hill, and had a single line Railway track a few hundred yards outside of it, it also had a very imposing church for so small a village also a hospital run by nuns for they took me there to dress my wounds and afterwards the Policeman of this village took me to the same place to identify the Bodies of F/O. Johnston, Ross-Ross, Binch and Buckman, and when the Luffwaffe took me from there in a car with four coffins, which I took to be my comrades, and though it was in the Black-out, I noticed a road sign on a new main Road just inside the village and it read To Munster. We went through 1 big town that had been badly burned which I took to be Munster. We went about 4 miles beyond this place to a newly Brickbuilt airport which had recently been bombed, and where they were using Jet aircraft, and the officer there that took my name and No. gave me to understand that they would be buried there. There was a small Railway Station about a mile from this place. I saw the name of it when I was taken to Frankfurt, but cannot remember it. I am afraid that is all I can tell you. But sincerely hope it will help, for I know that their people will wish to know all about them.

Yours faithfully,

Sgd. P. Mahon.

Dear Mr. Ross-Ross:

Further to my letter of February 12th, a report has now been received from Missing Research and Enquiry regarding your son, Pilot Officer Peter Donald Ross-Ross.

The report states that Pilot Officer Peter Donald Ross-Ross and the other members of his crew who lost their lives March 3rd, were buried March 6th, 1945, in the cemetery at Altenberge, near Munster, Germany. Flight Sergeant Binch and Pilot Officer Peter Donald Ross-Ross are buried in grave number one, and Flying Officer Johnston and Warrant Officer Buckman in grave number two.

The reverent care of the burial places of all who served in the Forces of the British Empire is the task of the Imperial War Graves Commission. Eminent architects are planning the construction of beautiful cemeteries and each individual grave will be supported and sustained by the nations of the Empire. I hope that it may be of some consolation to you to know that the grave of your gallant son is in sacred care and keeping.

May I again offer you my deepest sympathy.

Yours Sincerely,

Dear Sir. Re: Late P/O Peter Ross Rom J-93595

I painted a portrait of my son a little while ago, but showed only one ribbon. I believe that he would have been entitled to more had he lived.

So that I can complete the portrait, would you kindly advise what ribbons he would have worn, the order in which they would have been worn and the colour scheme of each one. If samples could be sent, these would be very helpful.

An early reply would be appreciated

Yours truly,
