Re: L-12285, Private STEWART, H.R.
The South Saskatchewan Regiment.

The marginally noted soldier was reported "Missing" after Dieppe in your Casualty Cable A. 1903 dated 23-8-42, and the next-of-kin was duly notified. Under date of October 19th, the wife of this soldier forwarded to this Office the enclosed envelope which was returned to her marked "Deceased". Your A. 3288 dated 28-10-42, in reply to our A.G. 862, further confirmed previous information this soldier "Missing".

It is requested that enquiries be made in this particular case to ascertain why the enclosed envelope was returned marked "Deceased".

(6-8)

It would appear that the same purpose would be served, and much distress would be saved the next-of-kin, if the words "Return to Sender" were placed on the envelope being returned instead of the words "Killed" or "Deceased".

More careful censureship of Officers' and soldiers' mail would appear to be necessary, or such other action as you may deem adequate.

Major-General,
Adjutant-General.

FOR THE ATTENTION OF CAPTAIN F.M.CASS.

L.12285 PTE. STEWART, H.R. The South Saskatchewan Regiment.

1. Reference is made to memorandum 10th December 1942, file 10/Stewart H.R./1 A.G.5c and the accompanying N.D.H.Q. letter 405-S-11,103, in regard to the endorsement on a letter intended for the marginally-noted reported "Missing" after the Jubilee Exercise. I may say that it is admitted by the Officer Commanding the South Saskatchewan Regiment that the endorsement on the cover in question, "Deceased" was in error, due to the fact that at that particular date there were several hundred such letters to be dealt with by the Regimental Authorities. According to the latestavailable records Pte. Stewart is still posted as "Missing".

2. With reference to the suggestion that the same purpose would be served and much distress would be saved the next-of-kin if the words "Return to Sender" were placed on the envelope being returned instead of the words "Killed" or "Deceased", I may say that the endorsement used in the treatment of mail of this nature in the Canadian Army Overseas, i.e. "Deceased" or "Missing" as the case may be, follows exactly that laid down in the British Army.

3. In returning mail to a sender some reason for its return must be given. Simply endorsing letters "Return to Sender" would not meet the situation, as the indefinite endorsement would cause a certain amount of distress, and would involve the Postal Services, Military and Civil, in a mass of correspondence explaining to the sender why the letters were returned.

4. It must be remembered that "Undelivered" mail is returned to others in addition to the next-of-kin, and it can be expected that the sender on receiving a letter simply endorsed "Return to Sender" would at once demand to know why the letter was not delivered. "Undeliverable" letter mail is returned through the Dead Letter Offices of the Civil Postal Administrations.

5. An example of an indefinite endorsement on "Undeliverable" mail is that used by the "R.A.F." i.e. "Returned on Air Ministry Instructions" without stating the reason for the return. This indefinite endorsement has been the cause of considerable correspondence answering enquiries from the senders as to why the item was returned.

6. It could be expected that after an Operation such as the "Jubilee Exercise" errors are bound to appear in Unit Records. Since the first "Jubilee" Casualty List was issued, numerous amendments showing changes in category have been issued, and I am not aware of any way in which the category of a casualty could in all cases be definitely stated, unless all "Undeliverable" items were held for an indefinite period, which would be a very un-sound procedure from a postal standpoint.

7. A final check could be instituted at N.D.H.Q. as the amendments to Casualty Lists are cabled to Canada, and would be dated later than the Casualty Lists available at Canadian Postal Corps Headquarters, at the time the items would be forwarded to the Base Post Office, Canada.

8. After this particular Operation, Canadian Postal Corps Headquarters had to deal with approximately 40,000 such letters, and to date only two complaints have been received of incorrect endorsements on returned mail,i.e. the case under discussion and that of B.37523, Pte. Taylor, G.E., R.H.L.I., whose mail for a short period was incorrectly returned to sender, whilst he was safe with the Unit, owing to his name being confused in the Unit Records with two other soldiers bearing the same surname, who have become casualties.
