A keen conscientious cadet whose work in both practical and theoretical subjects has been well above the avera ge. He displayed considerable determination and a good sense of responsibility. REPORT FROM:
123 O.C.T.U. R.A.(FIELD)

From 4 Mar 43
To 7 Aug 43

D.12527 LAWRENCE,TERRY NORTH

COY COMD'S REPORT:
1st month:
A very definite and individual character,who should develop well with further training.Plenty of physical dash and ability.
2nd month:
A cheerful,robust cadet with an alert and active outlook.Plenty of dash. Should make a good officer.
3rd month:
Doing very well and shows plenty of enthusiasm.He may be a bit light-hearted,but will certainly be a good leader.
4th month:
He is about average technically, but has difficulty in applying his knowledge.In other respects he is above average.
5th month:
This cadet has got a most cheerful outlook on life and plenty of physical dash.His methods therefore tend to be a bit slapdash. He does not give orders out ~~with~~ well, but he is, nevertheless, an officer who should do well in an emergency, as he makes up his mind quickly and gets on with the job. I think that this tendency to be irresponsible will disappear, when he gets away from the school atmosphere.
