Dear Doctor & Mrs Bourgeois,

Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your son whilst serving under my command.

He died during the action at Oran whilst performing an operation on an American soldier. His emergency theatre suffered a direct hit, killing everybody instantaneously. Later the ship sank, carrying them down with her.

Thus Canada has lost a brilliant surgeon, the Royal Navy a keen officer, my crew their beloved Doctor and I - my friend.

Should my duties bring me near Montreal in the future, I should like to call upon you, for Jacques often spoke of his family and I feel I know you and can share a little in your sorrow.

Very sincerely,

The Naval Liaison Officer,

Dear Sir,

My son, the late Surgeon Lieutenant Jacques de Lorimier Bourgeois RCNVR. was killed in action on November 8th, 1942, at the battle of Oran, North Africa, while serving as Medical Officer on HMS "HARTLAND""one of the two cutters which rammed the boom guarding Oran Harbour, achieving their obective through point blank fire from the shore batteries" as described in American papers. Jacques was instantly killed while operating pm a wounded American soldier.

Although a Canadian, my son enlisted both in the Royal Canadian Navy and in the Royal Navy, and was in due course appointed medical officer on the HARTLAND (under Lieutenant Commander Godfrey Billot's command).

As we never heard from the Canadian Authorities of the circumstances surrounding his death, I shall greatly appreciate if you would supply me at your next convenience with the details of my son's services whilst in the Royal Navy. For your further information I might add that Jacques was born in Montreal on the 7th of February 1913. His address or domicile was: 3744 Cote des Neiges Road, Montreal, Province Quebec, Canada (see Note).

In giving this matter your immediate attention, you will oblige.

Yours very truly,

Rebecca Greetham de Lorimier Bourgeois
(Madame R.G. Bourgeois)

Note: He was the only Montrealer, and I presume the only Canadian aboard the two cutters which led the attach on Oran.

P.S. For still further information I enclose copy of the Admiral Commanding Reserves' Secretary's (Mr. Patrick G. Bowden) of Queen Anne's Mansions, London, S.W. 1 letter, in response to the visit I paid to the Admiralty while stopping in London on the 14th of October 1950.

Re: Surgeon Jacques de Lorimier,
BOURGEOIS, H.M.S. "Hartland".

The father of the above man, (who was lost in the "Hartland" at Oran in November 1942) has asked us to enquire if there is any possibility of the ship being salvaged, as it is believed she sank about 300 yards from shore. He would also like to know if any of the bodies from her were buried in the local cemetery.

We will be most obliged for any information you may be able to give us.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Jackson W. Cook

Dear Sir: Your Reference No. NS 24-1-11

On August 2nd I wrote you regarding the applications of four young doctors who were serving at this hospital as Internes.

I now wish to advise you that Dr. Jacques De L. Bourgeois will be in a position to enlist on or about December 31st. He will have completed the surgical training in Neuro-surgery at that time, and I can heartily recommend him to you for a position on your Medical Naval Staff.

In addition to his excellent qualifications as a well-trained doctor, particularly in Surgery, he speaks French fluently.

Dr. Bourgeois himself will be communicating with you, and I trust that this enthusiastic young man's application will receive your favourable consideration.

Yours very truly,

The Naval Secretary
Department of National Defence
Ottawa, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed you will find four applications from members of the interne staff of the Toronto General Hospital. Recently these young doctors received a letter from your department stating that their names were obtained from the files of the Canadian Medical Association, indicating that they were willing to serve in His Majesty's Forces.

Considering the policy agreed upon between the Department of National Defence and the Canadian Medical Association, that in calling doctors for active service the hospitals would have their services disrupted as little as possible. I am respectfully suggesting a rotation in which these young men might be called up for duty which would inconvenience this hospital the least. If they must all be called immediately we shall accept this decision and make satisfactory arrangements for the medical work to be performed by our staff doctors and remaining internes. However, should some time elapse before the services of these men are definitely required one would suggest that they be called as follows:

1. PAIN, Albert Melrose.
This doctor graduated in 1937 and has had considerably more post-graduate training than the other three applicants and his duties are such that his services can be dispensed with more readily than any of the other men concerned.

2. MacINTOSH, David Lloyd. This doctor is a graduate of Dalhousie, 1939. However, the final year at Dalhousie is practically an interne's training and the services which he is now doing are such that the work can be looked after by delegating it to other internes who must of necessity carry a heavier load.

3. BOURGEOIS, Jacques De L.
This doctor is well prepared to serve immediately. However, he is at present senior interne on the Neurosurgical Division Since our staff has only two neurosurgeons and one is already on active service, the senior interne is obliged to carry on some of the duties formerly performed by the junior neurosur His term of service on this ward terminates December 31, 194 The longer he remains on this service the better trained he will be in this particular branch of medicine.

4. CHYSLER, W. Elgin.
As a rule we have two senior internes in Radiology. One has already enlisted. Our advice is that men trained in radiology are not numerous and consequently any additional training that this man will receive before being called to service will prove particularly valuable if radiologists are required.

In fairness to these four applicants I must state that they are most anxious to serve as and when required. The suggestions contained in this letter are merely submitted for you consideration knowing that you will be receiving other applications and must of necessity take the long term viewpoint of hostilities under consideration when making any selection for your staff.

Respectfully submitted,

Very truly yours,

(Sgd.) F.A. Logan, M.B.
Assistant Superintendent Medical.

H.Q. 1772-80-2

Ceci est ma dernière volonté et mon dernier testament.

Que Dieu ait pitié de mon âme.

A) Remerciements.

1) Je veux remercier tous ceux qui m'ont fait du bien et m'ont causé de bonheur durant ma vie.

2) Je demande pardon à ceux à qui j'aurais pu causer de la peine.

3) Je remercie en particulier mon cher père et ma chère mère pour m'avoir élevé dans la voie du droit chemin et m'avoir accordé toutes les facilités et tous les moyens de réussir dans la vie. Je les remercie enfin pour les innombrables bontés dont ils m'ont comblé et qui m'ont rendu heureux.

4) Je remercie ma chère fiancée Betty pour toutes ses bontés et dont elle a continué de me combler même durant les durs moments de sa grave maladie. Elle m'a rendu très heureux et je lui en témoigne toute ma reconnaissance et amour.

5) Je remercie mon cher frère Bernard pour avoir été mon bras droit auprès de la famille durant mon absence et s'être occupé ardemment de mes affaires alors que je ne pouvais le faire moi-même. Il m'a ainsi témoigné un bel amour fraternel et je lui en suis à jamais reconnaissant.

6) A mes trois soeurs, Claire, Louise et Geneviève, je leur laisse l'expression de toute ma reconnaissance pour leurs bontés envers moi avant et pendant mon absence lointaine.

7) Enfin, à tous mes autres parents et amis, je laisse l'expression de mon meilleur souvenir.

B) Disposition de mes biens. Exécuteurs testamentaires: 1) Dr. B.G. Bourgeois, Montréal, Canada.

2) Mr. B. de L. Bourgeois, Montréal, Canada.

Après ma mort, je veux que mes biens comprenant assurances, argents en banque et autres biens, soient divisés comme suit:-

1) A ma fiancée, Elizabeth (Betty) M. Reid, qui attendait mon retour définitif pour devenir ma femme, je laisse un legs de $4000.00 (quatre mille dollars).

2) Je veux que $100.00 (cent dollars) soient donnés comme legs à ma paroisse pour faire chanter des messes pour le repos de mon âme et des âmes du purgatoire.

3) Je veux que le total du reste de mes biens, en assurances et en argent en banque, soit après en avoir déduit le coût des quelques dettes que j'ai laissées, divisé en 10 (dix) parties égales, distribuées comme suit:

1) à mon père: 3 (trois) parties

2) à ma mère: 3 (trois) parties

3) à mon frère Bernard: 1 (une) partie. Celui-ci aura en plus, accès à tous mes effets personnels, autres que biens monétaires, qui pourront lui être utiles.

4) à ma soeur Claire: 1 (une) partie

5) à ma soeur Louise: 1 (une) partie

6) à ma soeur Geneviève: 1 (une) partie.

4) Remarque: advenant la mort de ma fiancée, Betty Reid, ou d'un autre bénéficiaire de ce testament, son legs ou sa partie, selon le cas, sera automatiquement donné à mon père, ou, advenant la mort de mon père, à ma mère.

C) Souhait:

Je souhaite sincèrement que ma famille aura le même regard protecteur sur Betty comme si elle eut été ma femme. Elle m'a attendu en vain, témoignage de son amour.

Que Dieu vous protège tous ne vous attristez pas sur mon sort.
