Dear Sir:-

I, Morris Epstein , would like to know the exact burial place of my late beloved son Wo. Max Mandel Epstein, R-104789, who lost his life in action November 8th, 1943. The accident occurred in Botwood, Newfoundland.

His wife remarried shortly after his death was confirmed and we have been unable to get any further information. Both my wife and myself have been under medical care ever since his accident, and as I am under medical treatment for Parkinson, we would greatly appreciate all the information you can supply us as it would be of great benefit to us all.

Hoping to hear from you as soon as possible with regard to this request, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Morris Epsteins

Dear Mrs. Cosman:

I am sorry indeed that after so long an interval I must refer to the loss of your former husband, Warrant Officer Class One Mandel Epstein, who has been officially recorded as not having a "known" grave.

Due to the extreme hazards attending air, land and sea operations, many Royal Canadian Air Force boys do not have a "known" grave. All are being commemorated by name on Memorials erected at a number of locations, each Memorial representative of a theatre of operations.

The Memorials are erected by the Imperial War Graves Commission (of which Canada is a member) who has announced that one of the Memorials will be erected in Ottawa, Canada. The name of your former husband will appear on that Memorial.

It is believed that the Memorial will be erected during 1956, and during the period of construction, before the name of your former husband is engraved on the Memorial, you will receive a Verification Form to complete and mail to the Imperial War Graves Commission.

Yours sincerely,

F.F. Fadden S/L

Mr. Morris Epstein,
5725 Hutchison St., #6,
Montreal, Quebec.

Dear Mr. Epstein:

I wish to acknowledge your letter of November 18th, concerning your son, Warrant Officer Class I Mandel Epstein who lost his life on Active Service November 8th, 1943.

As you are doubtless aware, your son's aircraft crashed into the sea near Botwood, Newfoundland, and most unfortunately his body was never recovered, and your son has no 'Known' grave. Four others who were in the aircraft and lost their lives at that time also have never been recovered. Your son's name and the names of the four others who have no 'Known' graves will be commemorated on a general memorial which will be erected by the Imperial War Graves Commission (of which Canada is a member) to the memory of the great numbers of R.C.A.F. personnel who do not have 'Known' graves.

I am sorry indeed to hear of the illness of Mrs. Epstein and yourself, and deeply regret having to convey such distressing news to you, but would like to take this opportunity of expressing to you and the members of your family my deepest sympathy.

Yours sincerely,

(W. R. Gunn)

OTTAWA, Canada, 24th November, 1944.

Mrs. M. Epstein,
849 Dollard Avenue,
Montreal, Quebec.

Dear Mrs. Epstein:

I am directed to advise you that your husband Mandel Esptein, has been promoted to the rank of Warrant Officer Class I with effect from September 16th, 1943.

This promotion follows a procedure adopted by the Royal Canadian Air Force, that all Aircrew members of the service if recommended by their Commanding Officer should at the end of the required lapse of time from their last promotion be promoted to higher rank. This promotion procedure has been made retroactive in order to extend the same recognition to those who have unhappily lost their lives.

It is my sincere hope that you may find sustaining comfort in the knowledge that the qualities of your gallant husband are thus recognized, and it is regretted that this information could not be passed to you at an earlier date but the delay in notifying you was unavoidable.

May I express to you and the members of your family my profound sympathy.

Yours sincerely,

for (T.K. McDougall) G/C, R.C.A.F. Records Officer,
for Chief of the Air Staff.
