ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE SERVICE BOOK

INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS AND AIRMEN

1. You will be held responsible for the safe custody of the book.

2. You will always carry the book on your person both at home and abroad.

3. You must produce the book whenever called upon to do so by a competent authority, civil, naval, military or air.

4. You must not alter or make any entry in this Book (except as regards short form of Will on page 16, see instructions on pages 12 to 15), and disobedience of this order will be treated as a serious offence.

5. Should you consider that any entry in the book is lacking or incorrect, or should you lose the book, you will report the matter to your immediate superior in the Royal Canadian Air Force. Any change in name or address of person to be informed of casualties must be reported immediately to your Commanding Officer.

The [illegible]tary,
Department of National Defence for Air,
OTTAWA, Canada.

1022-K-1404 (R.O.4)

OTTAWA, Canada, 21st May, 1943.

Mr. W.C. Kew,
5172 Earnscliffe Avenue,
Montreal, Quebec.

Dear Mr. Kew:

It is my painful duty to confirm the telegram recently received by you which informed you that your son, Sergeant Allan Alfred Kew, is reported missing on Active Service.

Advice has been received from the Royal Canadian Air Force Casualties Officer, Overseas, that your son was a member of the crew of an aircraft which left its base at 11:17 P.M. on May 13th, 1943 and failed to return after air operations. There was one other member of the Royal Canadian Air Force in the crew, Sergeant John Miller Farrell, and he also has been reported missing. His next-of-kin is his uncle, Mr. Peter Farrell, and his address is 1889 Haro Street, Vancouver, B.C.

This does not necessarily mean that your son has been killed or wounded. He may have landed in enemy territory and might be a Prisoner of War. Enquiries have been made through the International Red Cross Society and all other appropriate sources and you may be assured that any further information received will be communicated to you immediately.

Your son's name will not appear on the official casualty list for five weeks. You may, however, release to the Press or Radio the fact that he is reported missing, but not disclosing the date, place, or his unit.

May I join with you and Mrs. Kew in the hope that better news will be forthcoming in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

OVERSEAS HEADQUARTERS

No. 78 Squadron,
Royal Air Force,
Linton on Ouse,
Yorks.

13th. May, 1943.

Dear Mr Kew,

It is with the very deepest feelings of sorrow that I have to confirm the cable you will have received from the Air Ministry informing you that your son, Sergeant Kew, failed to return from a raid over Germany on the night of the 13/14th. May. I am afraid that there is absolutely no information I can give you, as no signal was received after the aircraft took off, and none of the other crews operating that night have anything to report.

It is quite possible of course, that he and the other members of the crew landed safely on enemy territory and are now prisoners of war, which we sincerely hope is the case, but nothing definite is known at the moment. You may be assured that I will let you know at once should any news come through. If you hear anything before we do, as sometimes happens, we should be very grateful if you would let us know immediately.

Your son's going has left a sad gap, not only in the work of the Squadron, where his enthusiasm for his work made him one of our most promising Air Gunners, but also in the Sergeants' Mess, where he had found many good friends. We all realise that nothing we can say can do anything to relieve the grief and anxiety this news must cause you but we should like you to know that we share these feelings. I trust that you will accept this letter as a sincere expression of the sympathy we all feel for you in your loss.

If there is anything I can do to help, I trust that you will let me know without hesitation. I feel that you might like to know the names of those who were with your son on the night in question, and enclose a list giving their names and next of kin.

Mr.W.C. Kew,
5172, Earnscliffe Ave.,
Montreal, Canada.

Yours Sincerely,

sigend G.B. WARNER

Dear Mr. Kew:

It is with deep regret that I must confirm the information which you have already received from Air Force Headquarters, Ottawa, which stated that your son, Sergeant Allan Alfred Kew, was reported missing as the result of air operations on the night of 13th/14th May, 1943.

Your son was Air Gunner of a Halifax aircraft, which took off on operations against the enemy on the above mentioned date, and failed to return. No information has since been received concerning him, however, enquiries are continuing through the International Red Cross Committee, and all other available sources, and any news which may be forthcoming will be communicated to you at once.

Please accept my deepest sympathy with you in your great anxiety.

Yours sincerely,

KEW, Allan Alfred, Sgt.,
R.135246 R. C. A. F.

ESTATES BRANCH OCT 20 1943 H.Q. OTTAWA NATIONAL DEFENCE

it is necessary that the requisite information regarding the deceased and his relatives should be furnished on the inside of this form in strict accordance with the printed instructions. The particulars required are to be carefully filled in and the Declaration on the back should then be signed in the presence of a Clergyman, Priest, Local Magistrate, Commissioner for Oaths or Notary Public, who should be asked to complete and sign the Certificate. This form should then be returned to the above address.

A deceased's Service estate, the administration of which is the responsibility of the Estates Branch, consists of any balance of pay and allowances at credit, cash on hand and the personal effects which are under the control of the Service authorities. To obtain such assets, it is not necessary for the person(s) legally entitled thereto to obtain through the Courts Probate of the Will, or if none, Letters of Administration of his estate.

In addition to the administration of those Service assets, the Administrator of Estates is authorized to withdraw into Government account any funds (within a defined amount) on deposit to the deceased's credit in Banks, Post Offices or other financial institutions in Canada and Overseas, without expense or trouble to the person(s) legally entitled to the estate, and to distribute such funds at the same time as any balance of pay is distributed. Also, War Savings Certificates and Victory Loan Bonds owned by the deceased may be redeemed and similarly distributed, or transmitted into the name(s) of the person(s) legally entitled. Such Certificates and Bonds should not be forwarded to the Administrator of Estates until they are requested.

If there are other assets which necessitate an application for Probate or Letters of Administration, the Administrator of Estates may transfer and hand over the Service assets to the executor or administrator appointed by the Court so that all the estate, Service and otherwise, may be dealt with as a whole.

The information given by you on Pages 2 and 3 of this form is therefore of importance in determining whether or not the deceased's assets are such that they may all be administered by the Administrator of Estates to the person(s) legally entitled, that is, without the need for Probate or Administration.

If there is insufficient space for complete particulars to be given opposite any question on Pages 2 and 3 of this form, the space under "additional remarks" on page 4 should be used.

OTTAWA, Canada, 5th. July, 1946.

Mrs. B.M. Kew,
5172 Earnscliffe Avenue,
Montreal, Quebec.

Dear Mrs. Kew:

It is a privilege to have the opportunity of sending you the Operational Wings and Certificate in recognition of the gallant services rendered by your son Flight Sergeant A.A. Kew.

I realize there is little which may be said or done to lessen your sorrow, but it is my hope that these "Wings", indicative of operations against the enemy, will be a treasured memento of a young life offered on the altar of freedom in defence of his Home and Country.

Yours very sincerely,

(W.A. Dicks) G/C
R.C.A.F. Records Officer.
