Dear Sir;

In answer to your letter of the 2nd April 1945. regarding my sons gratuity money. O/C 81762 (DAE/A8).

I wish to pursue my claim. Before my son entered the C.A.F. I was receiving pay from him as a mechanic when he entered the C.A.F. I told him to keep his pay and I did not ask any allowance from the Air Force as I was working and his pay was just enough for him to get along on. without me taking it from him. although my son wanted me to claim for allowance as others were receiving theirs. I did not bother I see now I was in my wrong.

The shock of my only son's death has left me in poor health as he was my only security for the future He has will of the C.C.A.F. every thing that belonged to him was left to me.
so I surely deserve that gratuity money. I will close Hoping my case will be considered and thanking you kindly for your attention to me.

Yours very truly
