Dear Sir:

With regard to your letter of the 17th instant, we are sending the War Saving Certificates as requested to be redeemed and credited to the Service Estate for distribution of same.

You claim that our son had no will. We agree with you that no Will was found amongst his personal effects which you have sent us, but we can not positively say that he had no Will because he may have had it on himself at the time of his misfotune or it may have been among his personal effects which he had with himself on the ship on which he served . We asked you to send us all his personal effects and we have not received them all, therefore we do not believe that he had no Will, no one can proove that he didn't, because he had not been found.

We have asked you to send us the bond from the Sixth Victory Loan which was registered in my name but you have not sent it, I demand that you send it as soon as possible, and, our son bought a bond in the Seventh Victory Loan, on account of his misfortune he did not complete the payments, therefore we ask that you send us the amount that he did pay.

We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Yours truly,

A. Bahleda

Dear Sir:

With regard to your letter of the 23rd instant, I wish to inform you that we do not understand the second paragraph. Would you be so kind as to explain it in detail. Enclosed you will find the letter that you have sent.

You say that our son left no Service Will. Was it not necessary for every service man who went overseas to make a will? We are under the impression that every man must make a will before he goes overseas, with no exception. If the army and air-force are obliged to make wills, likewise the navy must be too, therefore our son must have made a will. We do not believe that a man goes into battle without making a will first.

The bonds are registered in our names, as his parents. A stub from the Sixth Victory Loan is held by you in Ottawa. We asked you to return it to us with bond and you have returned neither stub nor bond.

We ask that you send us all our son's personal and financial effects including the bonds, back pay etc. in other words we want everything that belonged to our son, we are entitled to everything he owned, to the last cent.

There have been others' sons who have lost their lives for their country and those who live in it, and their parents have received all of their sons' belongings, personal and financial, therefore it is only right that you will be so kind as to send and give us all of our son's personal and financial effects too.

We will appreciate your kind cooperation in these matters.

Yours faithfully,

A. Bahleda.

Dear Mr. Bahleda:

Referring to your letter of the fourteenth ultimo, I am inclined to think that you have the wrong impression as to the request made by this Directorate for the War Savings Certificates and Victory Loan Bonds to be forwarded in order that they might be redeemed and credited to the Service estate herein for distribution with same.

Your late son left no Service Will and accordingly his Service estate must be distributed under the Intestacy Law of the province of Quebec, and our Quebec legal officer advises that the available amount is payable in the proportions of three-quarters to his father with one-half for the benefit of two minors, their shares being one-quarter each, and the remaining one-quarter payable to his mother, and consequently you will readily see that it will be necessary for the War Savings Certificates and Victory Loan Bonds to be redeemed to effect the distribution in accordance with the law of your province.

The Estates Directorate was constituted to assist the next of kin and beneficiaries of any Service personnel, and I can assure you that the authorities will not consider transmission of these securities without reference to this Directorate.

If, by chance, the bonds are bearer bonds, of course you can deal with them yourself, but if they should happen to be registered in your late son's name, we can assist you materially, as above stated, and would ask you to reconsider this matter and let us hear from you in due course.

It is presumed that you have made application to the Secretary of

Dear Mr. Bahleda:

Further to my letter of the 19th March, 1945 details of the disaster in which your son was reported missing, presumed dead are now being released for publication.

The accident occurred in the harbour of Ostend, Belgium, on the 14th of February, 1945, when an explosion and subsequent fires destroyed twelve Motor Torpedo Boats, closely berthed in a narrow passage known as the Grique inside the harbour. Five of the craft were Canadian and belonged to the 29th Canadian Motor Torpedo Boat Flotilla commanded by Lieutenant Commander C.A. Law, D.S.C., Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve.

Within a few minutes after the explosion boats were afire and it was impossible to move the inside craft to safety. One Officer and twenty-five Canadian Naval ratings lost their lives at this time and several were injured.

Medical attention was given as soon as possible by British and Canadian Naval and Army medical officers who were immediately rushed to the scene.

The following is an excerpt from a report of a Canadian Naval Press Relations Officer regarding memorial services which were held.

> "On the Sunday following, a memorial mass was said for the Canadian dead by Father Dodd in the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul. This was followed by an impressive memorial service in the dock-yard, conducted by Chaplain E.R. Bowdler, (Church of England), Royal Naval Reserve, Ostend Base Naval Chaplain, and Command Chaplain Ernest G.B. Foote (Protestant), Royal Canadian Navy. Officers and comrades of the men who lost their lives were drawn up on the decks of a group of Motor Torpedo Boats below the deck of the Control Tower where the service was conducted."

May I again express the sincere sympathy of the Department with you in your bereavement.

Yours sincerely,

NAVAL SECRETARY.

Dear Sir:

If it's possible for you, could you reveal any more factors than "Deceased 1/3/45," concerning the death of Steve A. Bahleda whose last address was

V-49972 R.C.N.V.R.
H.M.C. M.T.B. 461
% G.P.O.
London, England.

Yesterday I received a letter, returned for that reason. It was a shock to me found had not thought anything like that had happened to him. I would like to know the circumstances. It would help a little.

If permissable may I obtain his parents address from you or some other source? You don't know how much I'd appreciate any effort on your part to help me gain more information.

- All I know is that his family, parents, sister & brother, live in Montreal, and that he had relatives in Springfield, Westfield, and Lowell Massachusetts.

I'll be looking forward to your reply as good ~~and~~ bad as it may be.

Sincerely,

Olympia Gochis

V-49972 Pers(N)

18th February, 1945.

Dear Mr. Bahleda:

It is with deepest regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 17th of February, 1945, from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, informing you that your son, Stephen Henry Bahleda, Telegraphist, V-49972, Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, is missing on active service overseas.

The only information at present available and which may be released at this time is that your son is missing due to an accidental explosion in the Motor Torpedo Boat in which he was serving.

Very slight hope is held for his survival and, should no information be received to the contrary, an official presumption of his death will be forthcoming shortly.

It is requested that, for security reasons, information respecting the accident in which your son is listed as missing may be regarded as confidential until such time as an official announcement is made.

Please accept the sincere sympathy of the Department in your anxiety.

Yours sincerely,

SECRETARY, NAVAL BOARD.
