AIR MAIL

Dear Madam:

It is with deepest regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 18th February from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services informing you that your son, Kenneth Harold Dearlove, Signalman, R.C.N., O.N.4085 is missing and must be presumed lost on Active Service.

Your son was serving in H.M.C.S. "SPIKENARD" which was torpedoed and sunk by enemy action on the 10th February, 1942. Details of the action are not, however, available at this time.

The possibility of your son having been rescued by other ships cannot be estimated but it has been established that he was not among the survivors landed at a United Kingdom port and very little hope is held out for the survival of the remainder. You will be informed immediately should any further information be received.

I wish to express the sincere sympathy of the Chief of the Naval Staff, Officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy the high traditions of which your son has helped to maintain.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary, Naval Board.

Mrs. Margaret Dearlove,

For the purpose of record and in the event of there being any balance of pay, medals or memorials available for distribution (according to law) on account of the late

DEARLOVE, Kenneth Harold, Signalman,

it is necessary that the requisite information regarding the deceased and his relatives should be furnished on the inside of this form in strict accordance with the printed instructions. The particulars required are to be carefully filled in and the Declaration on the back should then be signed in the presence of a Clergyman, Priest, Local Magistrate, Commissioner for Oaths or Notary Public, who should be asked to complete and sign the Certificate. This form should then be returned to the above address.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that according to official information Kenneth Harold Dearlove, Signalman, Official Number 4085, Royal Canadian Navy, is missing, presumed lost on Active Service. He was serving in H.M.C.S. "SPIKENARD" which was torpedoed and sunk by enemy action on the 10th of February, 1942.

Dear Sir:

I beg of you to investigate the following information concerning my son, Signalman Kenneth Harold Dearlove, V.4085, "X" Spikenard, who was reported missing lost at sea in February 1942, and later reported "presumed killed".

Since then I have heard all sorts of rumours that my son may be alive, one of the prevalent rumours being that he was an inmate of an asylum in England.

Last week a Miss Leona Best of 1414 Fort Street, Montreal, a former friend of my son, arrived from Halifax and came to see me. She told me that my son was seen in Halifax approximately three monnths ago by her girl friend, Miss Pauline Murphy of 49 Birmingham Street, Halifax, N.S.

The following is Miss Murphy's story: My son was supposed to have met Miss Murphy in Halifax, when he approached her saying "Hello Pauline!" Miss Murphy's response was "I'm sorry I don't know you", as he had changed so much. My son said "Oh yes you do, I'm Kenny Dearlove", showing her his papers, identification cards and so forth. His story was that his ship was torpedoed and that he had been lucky enough to climb on a raft. The survivors on the raft were supposed to have been picked up by a ship and set down on an island where they lived on birds and raw fish. Miss Murphy had said my son looked like a skelton and that she would not have known him. Miss Murphy's story then went on that she had asked my son if I knew he was saved, and that he said he was not writing home. "They think I'm dead and I won't let them know I'm alive until after the war because ~~[illegible]~~ they won't know me in this condition". She asked him where he was going and he said "I'm going on another ship".

I wrote to Miss Murphy on November 6th and received a reply on the 11th, copy of which is enclosed.

This news as you can readily understand has been most upsetting to me and my husband, and I should be most grateful if you will investigate this unusual story, thereby putting our minds at rest.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Margaret Foulon

Dear Inspector Drysdale:

1. Enclosed herewith will be found a copy of a letter written by Mrs. Margaret Dearlove, 5720 Waverly Street, Montreal, addressed to the Commanding Officer, H.M.C.S. "MONTREAL", Montreal, Quebec, dated November 12th, 1942. Also attached is a copy of a letter addressed to Mrs. Dearlove from one, Pauline Murphy, Halifax.

2. It will be noted that this correspondence concerns the loss of Mrs. Dearlove's son, Ordinary Signalman Kenneth Harry Dearlove, R.C.N. This rating was lost through enemy action when the H.M.C.S. "SPIKENARD" was torpedoed and sunk February 10th, 1942.

3. As it would appear that some person, purporting to be this deceased rating and provided with necessary identification, has been seen in Halifax, the Commanding Officer, R.C.N. Barracks, Halifax, was asked to make inquiry.

4. For your information, the following is an excerpt from the report of the C.O., R.C.N. Barracks, Halifax:

"Miss Pauline Murphy, who has since married and is now Mrs. Pauline Doig, living at 49 Birmingham St., Halifax, N.S., was interviewed with reference to the statements she is supposed to have made as stated in Mrs. Dearlove's letter to the Commanding Officer, H.M.C.S. "MONTREAL". She stated that while she was working in the Cameo Grill, Spring Garden Road, Halifax, N.S. this last summer, a man dressed in Seaman's uniform with one Good Conduct Badge, came into the restaurant and approached her. A short conversation took place during which the rating tried to tell her that he was Kenny DEARLOVE. She stated that he showed her his registration card with that name on it. She further stated that she could not say if it really was DEARLOVE as she had not seen him for some seven or eight months and even then she had not known him very well. He was an occasional customer of the Cameo Grill and in this way she had come to know him. Mrs. Doig also said that although she had written to Mrs. Dearlove and told her this story she had not said anything concerning the torpedoed ship, subsequent rescue and life on an island living on birds and raw fish.

"In view of the serious nature of this case, it is recommended that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police would be the most suitable authorities to investigate the matter with the object of definitely establishing the veracity of the statement made by Mrs. Doig."

5. Unfortunately Dearlove was a casualty before having been fingerprinted and photographed by our Personnel Identification Bureau, and we have no photograph of him.

6. It would be appreciated if efforts would be made to determine the veracity of Mrs. Doig's (née Pauline Murphy) statement.

Re: Sgmn. Kenneth MARLOYE, C.N. V-4085,
H.M.C.S. "Spikenard" - Inquiry re:

1. Further to previous correspondence in connection with the above, a list of survivors from H.M.C.S. "Spikenard," together with their photographs, was obtained through the Headquarters of this Force from the Department of National Defence (Naval Service), Ottawa, and these photographs were shown to waitresses of the Cameo Restaurant in Halifax with a view to possible identification of the person who represented himself to Pauline MURPHY (Mrs. DOIG) as the above named. However, the results proved negative and none of the survivors could be so identified. In addition, three of the men listed were interviewed with a view to ascertaining whether or not they might have been responsible. The results in this instance were also negative.

2. Of the remaining surviving members of the crew of the H.M.C.S. "Spikenard," one, C.N. V-25797, Stoker George Anderson MORRISON, was killed in an automobile accident in October, 1942. Inquiries are being made in an effort to locate and interview the remainder. An attempt is also being made by the investigating member to secure a photograph of the crew of the H.M.C.S. "Spikenard" prior to the sinking with a view to finding out whether or not some former member of this vessel who may have been drafted to another ship before the "Spikenard" was lost may have been responsible for the alleged impersonation.

3. You will be further informed with regard to our inquiries in this matter.

1. Mrs. M. DEARLOVE, 5720 Waverly St. Montreal, P.Q., contacted this office requesting our assistance in locating her son, Kenny DEARLOVE, a Signalman in the R.C. Navy, who is reported to be missing since Feb. 10th. 1942. Mrs. DEARLOVE received a telegram from the Dept. of National Defence dated Feb. 18th. 1942, informing her that her son Kenny was reported to be missing from the S.S. 'Spikenard' which was torpedoed and sunk by enemy action on Feb. 10th. 1942. On Feb. 19th. 1942 she received a letter from the Dept. of Nat. Defence confirming the above telegram, which further stated that her son was not listed amongst several survivors landed at a United Kingdom Port.

2. On about Nov. 1st. 1942 Mrs. DEARLOVE received a phone call from Miss Leona BEST, 1414 Fort St. Montreal, informing her that her son Kenny was still alive and was at Halifax, N.S. Miss BEST had recently arrived from Halifax, and although she did not see Kenny herself, she informed Mrs. DEARLOVE that a girl-friend of hers had spoken to Kenny about two weeks previous to this; being about Oct. 15th. 1942; this girl-friend is a Miss Pauline MURPHY, 49 Birmingham St. Halifax, N.S.

3. Mrs. DEARLOVE immediately wrote to Miss MURPHY asking her for complete details of what had taken place, and if she could give any information as to the present whereabouts of her son Kenny. An answer was received after a few days, and is a follows:

49 Birmingham St.
Halifax, N.S.

Dear Mrs. Dearlove:

I rec eive your letter this morning. I know how you must feel thinking of Kenny. Now Mrs. Dearlove if he was alive you would be the one that would know, for they would send you word from Ottawa. For what Miss Best told you is quite through (true) about him comeing in and takeing my hand and saying 'How are you Pauline'. I look and said; do I know you, and he said, 'After me haunting this place for the past two years and you don't know Kenny'. So I said, Kenny they are only one Kenny I know, and that is Kenny Dearlove. And then he showed his card and it was the same name on it. And he asked to take me home and I refuse him, because I could not believe it was Kenny and cannot belive it to this day. Mrs. Dearlove, Halifax is not the best place in the world and a girl today just has to watch her step. Because it may have been a boy that knew Kenny and heard him talk of me or of us girls such

GIRLS SUCH as Margaret, Leona and myself; but I cannot belive it because he recall all the fun we had together. I also said Kenny is it really you and whad did your mother do when she seen you. All he said was don't talk about it, Pauline please. From what he said, I thought he was home and just returning back to get another ship. They are so maney bad things happen here in Halifax that I don't know what to think of it, because he did not look much like Kenny to me but the rest of the girls said it was him. I have never seen him since and that is three months ago. But no one can ever make me think it was Kenny if it was, and I hope for your sake, he certainly did change in his looks. And if he is alive he would sure write to his mother because he spoke of you so many times. Now Mrs. Dearlove that is all I can tell you, I hope you can understand the way I am stateing this letter to you, I am not very good to write. But I only hope my dear that he is still alive and you will hear from him soon. I hope to hear from you real soon, Yours,

4. SGD: Pauline Murphy.

4. It would appear from the above that someone is impersonating this subject, as he produced a card with the name 'Kenny Dearlove' on it; and as Miss MURPHY is well acquainted with KENNY she would undoubtedly recognize him

5. Mrs. DEARLOVE has contacted the Naval Authorities in Montreal, who could give her little information other than her son was on board the 'Spikenard' which was sunk by enemy action.

6. May enquiries be made at 'H' Division please, where Miss Pauline MURPHY could again be contacted; also a Miss Margaret HIGGINS, address unknown, but who is a friend of Miss MURPHY. Photograph is attached hereto for the information of 'H' Div.

DIARY DATE

SET FOR.....

1. Receipt of Memorandum from the Officer in Charge C. I. B. under date April 21st 1943 is hereby acknowledged. Further to I. C. R. submitted in the above connection no further information is available concerning the person reponsible for representing himself as Kenny DEARLOVE.

2. A.P.O.3212 Thomas Russell DEANS, and Harold John LAABS, Engineman, V16182 have been interviewed but have no knowledge of the affair nor can they give any assistance in this investigation whatsoever. Denis Hugh COWAN Able Seaman, V6481 and John Lindley WHITWORTH, A/L S.V4311 were not in this district at the time of the alleged impersonation. The photographs of these subjects have been viewed by the waitresses in the restaurant but in no way correspond with the description of the alleged impersonator. The eighth survivor, namely George A. MORRISON, was killed in an automobile accident on October 2nd 1942.

3. Investigation in this connection has been active since Dec. 2nd 1942 when Mrs. E. DEARLOVE, mother of the above noted received information from a Miss Leona BEST, ex-waitress in the Cameo Grill, Halifax N. S. to the effect that her son, who had been previously reported missing as a member of the crew of the S. S. "SPIKENARD", had presented himself at the Cameo Grill in Halifax N. S. sometime after the mother had been notified of his death.

4. Statements were taken from all the girls who were in the restaurant at the time of the alleged impersonation and all insisted that they did not feel that the rating who presented himself was Kenny DEARLOVE. With this point established investigation then turned to an endeavour to learn who was responsible for the impersonation. On the presumption that a shipmate of DEARLOVE'S was responsible photographs of the survivors of the "SPIKENARD" were obtained and each of the waitresses present in the restaurant at the time were given an opportunity to view the photographs but none were able to identify any of the survivors as being responsible for the impersonation. All available survivors were interviewed but no information obtained of any assistance. One fact has definitely been established and that is the fact that DEARLOVE could not possible be alive. Who committed the impersonation and why such an impersonation should be made could not be learned.

5. There appears to be no criminal offence committed and investigation in this regard was conducted for the purpose of obtaining some definite information for the mother of DEARLOVE. Every possible effort has be made to reach this objective but no results have been obtained. In view of this it is respectfully requested that this file be closed out

Dear Madam:

Further to your application for War Service Gratuity in respect of your late son, Kenneth Harry DEARLOVE, I am directed to inform you that the Dependents' Allowance Board has found that you cannot be considered as a dependent for the purpose of the War Service Grants Act, 1944.

The above mentioned Act, however, provides that unpaid gratuities must be paid to the Director of Estates for distribution as part of the Estate of the deceased member.

Final distribution of the amount involved is now in the hands of the Administrator of Estates. The eventual beneficiary will be determined by that Branch but, as certain procedure and formalities are necessary in order to make settlement, some time may elapse before this claim can be finalized.

Yours truly,

Submitted with reference to your Minute II COAC 1-2-2 dated 3rd December, 1942, and Naval Service Headquarters' memorandum NS: 62-D-296 dated 25th November, 1942 that this matter has been investigated.

2. Miss Pauline Murphy, who has since married and is now Mrs. Pauline Doig, living at 49 Birmingham St., Halifax, N.S., was interviewed with reference to the statements she is supposed to have made as stated in Mrs. Dearlove's letter to the Commanding Officer, H.M.C.S. "MONTREAL". She stated that while she was working in the Cameo Grill, Spring Garden Road, Halifax, N.S. this last summer, a man dressed in Seamans uniform with one Good Conduct Badge, came into the restaurant and approached her. A short conversation took place during which the rating tried to tell her that he was Kenny DEARLOVE. She stated that he showed her his registration card with that name on it. She further stated that she could not say if it really was DEARLOVE as she had not seen him for some seven or eight months and even then she had not known him very well. He was an occasional customer of the Cameo Grill and in this way she had come to know him. Mrs. Doig also said that although she had written to Mrs. Dearlove and told her this story she had not said anything concerning the torpedoed ship, subsequent rescue and life on an island living on birds and raw fish.

3. It is noted that Mrs. Dearlove states in her letter of 12th November, 1942, that she is enclosing a copy of Miss Murphy's letter to her which was received on the 11th. This letter was apparently not enclosed and it is suggested that it be obtained and compared with Mrs. Doig's present remarks.

S.S. "Spikenard" - Inquiry re:

1. Information has been received by the Officer Commanding this Force at Montreal from the mother of the above named, who has been reported as lost at sea when the H.M.C.S. "Spikenard" was sunk by enemy action, that some person in Naval uniform visited the Cameo Restaurant and stated that he was Sgmn. DEARLOVE. Inquiries to date by our local Detachment have revealed that some person undoubtedly did visit the Cameo Restaurant, representing himself as Sgmn. DEARLOVE, but the identity of this person has not as yet been established.

2. It is understood from the investigating Constable that this matter has also been reported to your Department and that an inquiry was conducted by a Naval officer. In order that our investigation may be furthered, it would be appreciated if we could be advised as to the result of your investigation, and also, if possible, the names of the survivors of the "Spikenard" and their present whereabouts, as the possibility has been advanced that one of the survivors may have acquired Sgmn. DEARLOVE's identification papers. Your co-operation in this matter will be appreciated.

1. Further to my memorandum of March 10th with respect to the above noted enquiry. "Spikenard", with the exception of three ratings, have now been interviewed. One of the survivors was killed in an automobile accident in October, 1942, and the remaining two are reported as not having been in this district at the time of the impersonation of Sgrn. Dearlove.

2. The photographs of all the survivors were viewed by the waitresses at the Cameo Restaurant, Halifax, who were acquainted with this deceased rating, and none of the survivors was identified as being the person responsible for the impersonation.

3. There would appear to be no further avenue of investigation open with respect to this matter, and as none of the employees at the Cameo Restaurant can supply any information as to the identity of the person responsible, it is not considered that further investigation is warranted and I am therefore considering my file as closed. Should any information with respect to this matter come to hand at a later date, appropriate enquiries will be made and you will be advised.
